

HENEY EXPLAINS HIS PURPOSE

GIVES OUT INTERVIEW AT MEDFORD TODAY.

States That This Trip is Made at a Great Sacrifice—Republiques Statement That Roosevelt Has Silenced Him in His Crusade Against Fulton—Say His Say and Then Go Leaving People of Oregon to Be the Judges, He Says.

Medford, Ore., April 10.—Speeding northward as far as a limited can carry him, Francis J. Heney is en route to Portland to publicly present his proofs of his charges against Oregon's senior senator, C. W. Fulton.

Today when the famous prosecutor passed through Medford he gave the representative of the United Press the first authorized interview since leaving San Francisco.

Comes to Present Proofs.

"I am coming to Portland at a great personal sacrifice," he said. "I come to place before the people of Oregon proofs of the charges of corruption I have made against Fulton, and to also answer his denunciations. If I had not something of importance to say, I would not make this trip. There is absolutely no truth in the report that President Roosevelt silenced me by my attack on Fulton. The president has not indicated to me that he had any wishes in the matter. I will fight aggressively. I have nothing to defend. I have no constituency to explain my acts to. After I have presented my proofs the people can judge for themselves."

A report that Heney had with him a number of affidavits from members of the legislature backing up certain charges he had made against Fulton in his speech last winter, was not denied by him while he stopped at Grants Pass this noon for a few minutes.

"When I finish my speech next Saturday night, the people will know whether I have such affidavits or not." He said that he might extend his speaking tour in Oregon to cover several days and stump the Willamette valley, following Fulton's route.

Evans Brightens Up. Paso Robles, April 10.—The presence of Mrs. Robley Evans here today caused the rear admiral to brighten up and feel much better. Surgeon General Torney of the Presidio hospital at San Francisco, will arrive today to make a second examination of the admiral.

LITTLE VISITING FOR THE FLEET

EUROPEAN NATIONS TO CUT OFF ITINERARY.

Although Pressure Has Been Brought to Bear on Navy Department to Have the Atlantic Fleet Visit England When the Oriental Trip is Over, the Fleet Will Not Touch Channel Waters—Could Not Visit All, Therefore Not Any.

Washington, April 10.—The fleet will do no visiting after it leaves the orient. Pressure has been brought to bear upon the administration to have the fleet visit the channel by the British government, but after long consideration the government has decided that it would not be possible for the fleet to visit all European nations of the first class, and unless it did that could not afford to give any offense by visiting some and not all. England will have to be content with a visit of the fleet to Australian ports.

CRUCIAL HOUR FOR GOV. HUGHES

NEW YORK REPUBLICAN CONVENTION TOMORROW.

That Dictatorial Commonwealth Called New York State, Will Tomorrow Show Its Hand in the Presidential Warfare—Delegates Arriving for the Most Important Convention of Any in the Union—Hughes Practically Assured of Selection.

New York, April 10.—Delegates from upstate are beginning to drift into the metropolis today in advance of tomorrow's republican state convention, which will doubtless be one of the most important gatherings in the history of the party in the Empire state. The action of the convention, in the opinion of astute politicians, will go far toward determining how New York's vote will be cast in the coming presidential election, and, in consequence, whether the country will have a republican or democratic president. New York republican leaders admit that there is little likelihood of such a walk-over for the party as that of four years ago. In declaring for Hughes as the standard-bearer, New York republicans believe they can go before the national convention and assert: "Nominate our candidate and we will guarantee his election." It is this spirit that animates the delegates to tomorrow's state convention, and it is now settled beyond doubt that New York's delegates will present a united front at Chicago in behalf of Governor Hughes.

Britt-McFarland Bout Tomorrow.

San Francisco, April 10.—Jimmy Britt and Packy McFarland of Chicago have finished training for their bout tomorrow. Both are about a pound over weight, but the excess can be easily dried out.

CABINET MEMBERS FEAR ANARCHISTS

SECRET SERVICE MEN GUARD THE WHITE HOUSE.

Growing Out of the Short Message Sent by Roosevelt to Congress Asking for Stricter Regulation of Anarchy, Comes a Fear That "Reds" Will Take Life of Cabinet Members—Roosevelt Guarding His Movements More Carefully.

Washington, D. C., April 10.—Fearing anarchistic outrages will follow as a result of President Roosevelt's short message of yesterday, asking that congress adopt stricter measures against the spread of anarchy, secret service men are today closely guarding members of the cabinet, particularly Postmaster General Meyer.

An order directing the secret service to take such steps was issued last night after threats had been made against the life of Meyer and other cabinet members.

News of these threats reached the White House in an indirect manner and so far it is not known who sent in the information.

Roosevelt, however, has been told to be very careful in his movements in the future and the service is very careful to see that no suspicious characters approach the White House.

TOOK POSTAL COIN.

Postmaster Grant of Bend Confesses He is Short $3200.

Prineville, April 7.—Postmaster Alfred R. Grant of Bend has been removed by Postal Inspector R. J. Stockmyer of the Spokane division, and his bondsmen are in charge of the postoffice.

It became apparent to the department some time ago that there was some irregularity in the manner in which money order funds were being transmitted to the depository at Portland and an investigation was made at once.

After being questioned Postmaster Grant made a confession to the postal inspector and Mr. Hunter, one of his bondsmen, which is said to have been in effect as follows:

Grant had practiced irregularities in handling the funds and had misappropriated sums at various times for over two years. Whenever a postal inspector was in the vicinity a fake duplicate of remittance letter was made to cover the amount and placed with other papers in the cash box, which was counted as cash when the office was checked up by the inspector. Thus inspectors were evaded during a period of two years. He said further that some amounts had been borrowed from and repaid to the money order funds.

The office was short about $3200. Of this $2600 had been taken since the start of the current year. What had been done with the funds Grant would not state, further than that they had been appropriated to his own use.

"I will repay it some day," he said, but that was all.

EARLY ADJOURNMENT.

Representative Thinks May 20 is the Time for Adjournment.

Washington, D. C., April 10.—Representative Mann of Illinois, who is close in the confidence of Speaker Cannon, stated today that he expects to see congress adjourn about May 20, provided a rule is brought in to expedite the disposition of bills which have been to conference. He pointed out that the motion to suspend the rules and place the Indian appropriation bill on immediate passage had failed and that if the minority took advantage of their rights they could force the house to spend two months considering senate amendments to this bill alone.

All republican leaders realize that their fences need attending to, and they are anxious to get away so more emergency rules can be expected.

Race Reaches Valdez. Valdez, Alaska, April 10.—The Thomas car in the New York-Paris auto race reached here and was met by a large crowd. A public reception will be held tonight and a banquet will be tendered the car crew. Sunday the automobile will start for Fairbanks. Owing to the narrow trail the car will be sledged through the Keystone canyon. From there to Fairbanks the trail is wide and can be made easily.

Fritz Back in Asylum.

Spokane, Wash., April 10.—Fritz Buck, son of Judge Norman Buck, recently arrested for attempting to murder John Shaw, a prominent Mason here, was sent to the asylum today. He said he did not deny his insanity, but wanted to kill the Mason before being confined.

IN DEFENSE OF APPROPRIATION

ITS ENEMIES RESORT TO MISREPRESENTATION.

Hiring of Football Coach at the University Not Done by the School Itself, Though Enemies of the University Appropriation Say It Is—Granges Were the First to Appeal to the Supreme Court on Technicalities, Not the School.

Eugene, Ore., April 7.—(Special.)—

An attempt is being made by the enemies of the University of Oregon to create prejudice against the appropriation bill through misrepresentation. They claim that the university hires a football coach at $1500 for a little more than two months' "instruction." As a matter of fact, the university has nothing to do with the hiring of a coach, other than to see that he is the right kind of a man. Neither have the students ever paid $1500 for a coach, and further, the coach's salary is paid entirely from the gate receipts of such games as the ones with the Oregon Agricultural college and Multnomah. They say that the increase in the appropriation is 300 per cent, when they know that the university has received $78,500 for the past two years, and the increase can only be 59 per cent. Even if the one item of $47,500 of the old appropriation bill were taken, the increase would be only a little over half of what they claim. They say also that the university has shown bad faith in pushing this bill by going to the courts on technicalities. As a matter of record, the enemies of the university were the first to appeal to the courts, when the secretary of state refused to file their petitions, and later carried the case to the supreme court. The friends of the university have appealed to the courts only once, and then when the title was manifestly unjust and misleading. These are but examples of the misrepresentation used by the opposition throughout their arguments.

P. O'Sullivan is arranging to go to Hot Lake this evening for a few days.

FULTON LAUGHS AT HENEY'S ACT

SAYS PERSONAL MALICE AT BOTTOM OF IT ALL.

The Fact That Francis J. Heney is Coming to Oregon to Deliver Two Addresses Antagonistic to Fulton, is No Matter to the Latter—Oregon's Senator Calls it Malice and Smiles—Leaves for Eastern Oregon to Begin His Campaign.

Portland, April 10.—Fur will fly in Oregon political circles the next three days. Francis J. Heney is due to arrive in Portland tonight or tomorrow. He comes to enter the lists against C. W. Fulton, candidate for re-election to the United States senate. He will open here Saturday night and speak at Salem on Sunday night.

Fulton to Eastern Oregon.

C. W. Fulton leaves for eastern Oregon today, as he closed his western Oregon campaign last night with a speech at McMinnville. When told that Heney was en route north to take the stump against him, he smiled:

Evidence of Personal Malice.

"It merely goes to show that Heney is actuated by personal malice when he will drop his duties in San Francisco to come up here to make two speeches against me. His coming is immaterial."

Pennsylvania Primaries.

Harrisburg, Pa., April 10.—The first real test of Pennsylvania's new primary system will take place tomorrow, when the republican, democratic, socialist, prohibition and city parties will nominate candidates for congress, the state senate, house of representatives and judges throughout the state. Under the new primary law of Pennsylvania, district conventions are done away with and the candidates of all parties will be selected at the primaries, at which from present indications, more voters will participate than at any previous election. The democracy will battle over the question of whether the national delegates will go to Denver uninstructed. The Bryan Democratic league of Pennsylvania has announced candidates for national and state delegates against the regular adherents.

NEW CASES INSTALLED.

Postoffice Department Equipped With New Cases.

The postoffice was today equipped with two new mail cases, which will be used when the free delivery service is started here. The cases were made by Goodnough & Cox. It is neatly done and affords table room for both the carriers to work on in sorting mail and provides for a liberal number of sorting boxes, where the mail is segregated prior to being assembled in such form as the carriers desire, to make the most convenient delivery.

IT IS THOUGHT TO BE THE HAPPINESS AND GLORY of every citizen to so live and act that his fellow citizens will esteem him for his goodness, his kindness, and his usefulness. The principles of good citizenship should constitute the code of rules for every kind of business whether public or private. This applies particularly to the drug business, because, owing to the limited knowledge of the qualities of drugs by the general public, it follows that the reliability of the druggist is the chief guarantee of good service.
