MEETING TOMORROW NIGHT.

Special Need of a Full Attendance at Board Meeting.

Tomorrow night is the date for the adjourned meeting of the board of managers, and as the financial situation of the club is to be arranged and settled for good, it is necessary for the club that these delinquents be paid up in order to clean the slate of all outstanding debts, the manager must have the $700 or more which is delinquent. Pay up your dues and let the club pay all its debts.

CHANGE VOTING PLACE.

Third Ward Poll Moved to Old Kindergarten Building.

The county officials have found it impossible to secure the South M. E. church parsonage as a polling place for the primary election, but a substitute has been found. The third ward voters will find the poll in the old kindergarten building in the rear of Attorney William Ramsey's residence, on Fourth street.

RATES TO FRISCO.

Fleet Week Means Low Rates on the S. P. Road.

Commencing with May 2 and continuing until the fourth, the Southern Pacific will sell return tickets from Portland to San Francisco for $25. Fleet week at San Francisco occurs on that date. The tickets are not good for stopovers en route, and apply on the Southern Pacific only. Hence, rates to Portland from La Grande will remain local. They are good for return in 29 days.

"Footprints of Blood."

Washington's famous winter at Valley Forge has become a well known fact in history. So great was the suffering of his men that frequently their bare feet left prints of blood upon the rough, frozen earth. This is but one of innumerable examples of sacrifice in the onward march of the nations. At the union meeting in the Baptist church tonight, Mr. Fretz will speak upon the theme, "Footprints of Blood," and will show the need of sacrifice in securing humanity's greatest blessing. Special musical features have been planned, with a definite view of focusing the entire interest of the meeting upon a single point. It is certain that this meeting will be helpful to all who attend.

Two Union Services.
Next Sunday evening there will be two union services. One in the Baptist church under the direction of Evangelist Fretz, and one at the Methodist church. Rev. Seemann of the Presbyterian church will preach.

Republicans in Boston.

Boston, April 10.—With Postmaster General George von L. Meyer presiding as chairman, the Massachusetts republican state convention was called to order in Tremont temple at 10:30 o'clock this morning. After the transaction of preliminary business, the convention adjourned until this afternoon, when four delegates at large to the national convention will be elected. (Lodge, Crane and Bates are almost sure of places among the "big four," but a lively fight is expected in the selection of the fourth delegate. The choice for the latter lies between former Secretary of the Navy John D. Long and Colonel Sydney O. Begney, the Taft candidate.

Congressional district conventions will be held next week in many Massachusetts districts. In nearly all districts the principal issue between the candidates for delegates is the support of Taft. Adherents of the war secretary believe that they will secure at least 18 of the 32 delegates from this state. This is denied by the anti-Taft men, who say that not more than nine or 10 delegates from this state will vote for Taft.
