POLLS OPEN AT TWELVE.

Candidates in Big Stir as the Primary Hour Approaches.

The polls of Union county on primary election day will be open from 12 until 7 in the evening, thus differing from the general election hours. It is but five days more now, until the primaries stare us in the face. The only noticeable result of this nearness of the crucial hour, is an increased amount of activity on the part of the candidates. The finishing touches are being given the various corners of the county. One or two public speeches, some individual electioneering, and the campaign for nomination will be over. Senator C. W. Fulton's address on Monday evening and W. F. Anderson's in this city on Wednesday evening, will constitute the stamping feature of the campaign, as far as announced.
