Public Speaking.
W. F. Anderson, the republican candidate for county clerk, addressed the citizens of this city last evening in the Commercial club building. There was a good sized audience out to hear him on his topic, "Pure Politics." He was followed by candidates for the legislature R. D. Hamilton and S. F. Richardson, who were both heartily encouraged. Taking it all in all, the meeting last evening has caused as much general diversified comment as any political speaking held here during the campaign.

Date Postponed.
Evangelist Haudenschild wrote today that the meetings he is now holding would be continued for another week and that his La Grande date would be one week later—the 29th instead of the 22nd.

A SLIGHT MISTAKE.

Good Attraction at the Electric, Although Two Days Past.

"The Incendiary Foreman" is one of the strongest films among the attractions at the Electric theater for this week end. Through an accident the attraction is two sets short tonight but the shortage will be remedied tomorrow. The entire set is satisfactory to the most critical patrons and no one can afford to miss tonight's performance, notwithstanding that there is a shortness from the regular program. The program is given in the house ad. in this issue.
