

POULTRY FENCE

Now is the time to fence your chickens in. Come and get some poultry fence. I have it in different kinds and all heights. Just received a car extra Star A Star shingles. They are first class. Call and see my souvenirs, 25c to $2.00 each. They are nice presents to send to your friends.

MRS. T. N. MURPHY
HARDWARE and CROCKERY

Everett Kemp, who appears in Central church this evening, is registered at the Sommer house.

The banks, city offices, county offices and saloons were closed this afternoon because of the primary election.

A crowd of Greeks employed on the Elgin extension, arrived last evening from Elgin en route to Riparia, where they will be used on the resumed extension work on that line.

Mrs. Ethel Carney, who is the guest of her father, Engineer O. W. Moon of the Pilot Rock branch, left last evening for her former home at La Grande for a few days' visit.—Pendleton E. O.

Manager S. D. Crowe of the Home Independent Telephone company, arrived last evening from a week's visit in Wallowa county, where his company is doing considerable improvement and extension work.

Prof. H. J. Hockenberry left this morning for Pendleton, where he will act as a judge in the Pendleton academy-Taultan academy debate tonight on the question, "Resolved, That the United States should control a system of postal savings banks."

Mrs. J. H. Morton is packing her household goods preparatory to moving to Walla Walla next Monday, where she will make her future home with her family. Miss Maude Morton accompanies her. The Misses Nell Morton and Dilla, will remain here until the close of school.

The large pipe organ which was ordered for the L. D. S. church about a year ago, is now under process of reconstruction. The original plans were modified and changed considerably, thus accounting for the delay in completion. It is to be the largest organ outside of Salt Lake, on the Pacific coast and northwest.

M. Reynolds, who now owns what was formerly the Chas. G. Bunte property on Adams avenue, has filled in the ground, planted it to lawn, and has improved the house generally, including a 20-foot porch. Mr. Reynolds has also planted out a number of horse chestnut trees that are making a fine growth.

OREGON RANGE WAR.

Central Oregon Seat of Bitter Range War Once More.

Pendleton Ore. April 17.—A range war has broken out in Central Oregon again after smoldering for some months. One arrest has been made. Sheriff Elkins placed Larkin H. Elliott, a rancher on Ochoco valley, under arrest, charged with burning sheep corrals, hay barns and houses belonging to ex-Congressman J. N. Williamson, which occasioned a loss of about $5000. The Mackintosh Livestock company also suffered a heavy loss, when their corrals and barns were burned last week. Last Tuesday night a mile and a half of barbed-wire fence belonging to Williamson was ruined by wire cutters.
