"THE PIT" TOMORROW

"The Pit," which is to be produced at the opera house Saturday night, is one of Augustus Thomas' greatest plays and ranks among the big New York successes. Mr. Thomas' plays are two well known to need mention here, as his "Arizona" was produced here a short time ago.

The cast is composed of local people, and as the rehearsals have been in progress for nearly a week, a delightful performance is guaranteed to all.

MANY NEW TELEPHONES

The Home Independent Telephone company has a large demand for 'phones in Wallowa county. In the last week nearly 50 applications have been received in addition to those already located. Among the new extensions in Wallowa county will be one from Imnaha to Fruita, which will reach the large cattle and sheep men along the Imnaha river. The end of this line will be 140 miles from La Grande, which gives an idea of the growth of this company. H. A. Thomas is superintendent of Wallowa county.

Notice to Auto Owners.

All auto owners and drivers are requested to keep their machings off the streets during the stock parade Saturday. A compliance with this request will tend to prevent accidents and will be greatly appreciated by those participating in the parade, the management and the police department.

J. W. WALDEN,
Chief of Police.

Easter Arrivals.

The Fair store has just received by express a shipment of ladies' suits. These suits are especially attractive for Easter wear and the ladies should call at the Fair store and see them. They are now ready for inspection.
