FROM COUNTY EXCHANGES

(Elgin Leader.)

Lon Stoop is shipping potatoes to Missouri and Kansas points, and getting a good price for them.

J. S. Jansen, the well known livery man of Lewiston, Idaho, arrived in the city last week with a party of five persons whom he had driven over from his town, a distance of 120 miles. Mr. Jansen and the party put up at the Sommer house.

J. M. Ashworth of Athena, was in Elgin recently looking this field over with the idea of building a modern, up-to-date opera house here. He expressed himself well pleased with the situation and stated that it was almost a certainty that he would build at an early date.

The Elgin brass band, successor to the Woodman band, is rehearsing regularly each week under the direction of Prof. E. F. Hug. There are 25 members in the band, 19 ladies and misses, and the remainder men and boys. About 18 members attend rehearsals regularly and take a decided interest in the organization.

(Elgin Recorder.)

Harsha Morton was down from La Grande this week visiting Elgin friends. The Morton family will move to Walla Walla in a few days to make their home.

Mrs. O. S. Wigglesworth arrived on Monday's train from her home in California to visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vietor.

Thomas Siegmund has contracted for 10 cub bears of C. Carpy of Walla Walla. The cubs have not been delivered, but Mr. Carpy has them ready to ship on short order. Mr. Siegmund will ship the animals to parties in the east.

Mrs. D. D. Wortman left Wednesday evening for Walla Walla, where she goes to be at the bedside of Richard McIntyre, who was recently injured by the explosion of an acetylene gas tank. The injured man was moved to a Walla Walla hospital Wednesday and is reported to be in a dangerous condition.

Conditions permitting, the Elgin-Joseph Stage company will start its stages running on the summer schedule next Monday. Under the present or winter schedule, the stages lay over at the hotel in the canyon at night taking two days to make the trip through to Joseph without a stop.

MAY TAKE AWAY PASSES.

Interstate Commerce Commission Now Questions Free Passes of Railroad Attorneys.

If the railroad commission of Oregon follows the feeling of the interstate commerce commission, many local attorneys for railroads henceforth may go without annual passes, says a dispatch from Washington. It has been a practice of roads to select an eminent and influential attorney in each county along their lines who could be called upon to attend to the company's interests, and while not placing these attorneys on salary to give annual passes, as though they were employed by the road.

Often unless called on to serve in a particular suit, no money has passed from the company to the attorney, yet they are carried on the free transportation list of the road, and the annual pass is practically all the compensation received, it being regarded as sufficient. The federal commission has looked into this situation with some care and has ruled that local attorneys of railroads cannot, under the existing law, use passes on interstate journeys.

It also rules that all attorneys who receive passes must be in the employ of the company as their chief occupation, not as a mere side issue in their law practice.

The federal commission realizes that this ruling will cut off many so-called railroad attorneys who now travel on free transportation, some belonging to the legislature, others going to the state capitals to lobby, and still others coming to Washington for the same purpose, and as alleged regular attorneys of road having received transportation over connecting lines of their companies.

If the Oregon commission, as in the past, adopts the policy of following when possible the federal commission's rulings, and applies it in this instance, many Oregon attorneys will be deprived of their perquisites and must go without their annual passes, being entitled to trip passes when actually on legal business for the corporation.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Union County.

Samuel T. Boothe, plaintiff, vs. Myrtle Boothe, defendant.
To Myrtle Boothe, the Above Named Defendant:

In the name of the state of Oregon, you are hereby summoned and required to appear in the circuit court of the state of Oregon, for Union county, and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled cause on or before the 2nd day of May, 1908, or in default thereof the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief prayed for in the complaint, to-wit: for a decree of the court declaring the marriage contract between plaintiff and defendant null and void, and for such other and further relief as may be agreeable to equity and good conscience.

This summons is served by publication thereof for six consecutive weeks in the Evening Observer, a daily newspaper of general circulation published at La Grande, Union county, Oregon, by order of Hon. Thomas Crawford, judge of the above entitled court, made and entered on the 21st day of March, 1908.

R. H. LLOYD,
Attorney for Plaintiff.

To Extend Electric Line.

G. F. Robertson, postmaster at Turner, was in the city yesterday and states that everything is moving along in fine shape in his locality, says the Salem Statesman. He states that the Oregon Electric has just finished its survey from Salem to Turner and that Turner people confidently expect an electric railroad in a short time. There is an impression in that locality, according to Mr. Robertson, that the road will continue on south to Albany or that a branch line will be built east into the Stayton neighborhood.
