SECURE SOCIETY EDITOR.

Mrs. J. J. Carr Takes Charge of Society for This Paper. The Observer has strengthened its news-gathering force to a large degree by placing at the head of the society department Mrs. J. J. Carr. She will have full charge of the social functions from a newspaper standpoint, and the proprietors will appreciate any kindness shown Mrs. Carr. When not in this office, she can be telephoned to at Black 471.

This feature of the publication's news has perhaps been slightly overlooked of late, but from now on the new society editor will rapidly push The Observer to the front in this line of news, as it already is in every other phase.

GAMES POSTPONED.

Pendleton Not Coming This Week on Account of the Grandstand.

The baseball series scheduled with Pendleton in this city, to commence Thursday and end Friday, has been postponed by mutual consent, due to the fact that the carpenters failed to complete the grandstand, and the local promoters did not wish to break the grounds in until everything is in readiness. Just when the Pendleton game will be pulled off here depends on the alacrity with which the contractors complete their work. The frequent rains of late are deterring completion considerably.

The Pendleton Pets play at Walla Walla on Sunday, the first game of the season between those two teams.

"BLIZZARD" RUN OVER.

Pet Dog Around Railroad Yards Killed by Freight This Morning.

"Blizzard," the bird dog owned by Ed Thomas, round house foreman, and which has for long been a pet of all railroad employes, met a tragic death this morning. An incoming stock train ran over the animal and amputated one limb at the hip. The suffering of the brute was so intense that employes who saw the accident quickly dispatched him. The loss of the dog is common grief about the shops. The bird dog had been a constant companion of all the employes. Two other sincere mourners are Etha and Frank Thomas.

Cured After Physicians Said He Had Consumption.

E. H. Jones, Pastor M. E. Church, Grove, Md., writes: "About seven or eight years ago I had a very severe cold which physicians said was very near pneumonia, and which they afterwards pronounced consumption. Through a friend I was induced to try a sample of Foley's Honey and Tar, which gave me so much relief that I bought some of the regular size. Two or three bottles cured me of what the physicians called consumption, and I have never had any trouble with my throat or lungs since that time."

Three sizes—25c, 50c, $1.00. The 50 cent size contains two and one-half times as much as the small size and the $1.00 bottle almost six times as much.
