REHEARSING DAILY.

"For Brother Tom" Will Be Well Prepared by Local Actors.

So earnest are the members of the cast which will produce "For Brother Tom" in this city next Tuesday and Wednesday nights, under the auspices of the La Grande band, that practices and rehearsals are held every evening. The very best local talent will be in this galaxy of amateur actors and something great is in store for theatergoers. Messrs. Coolidge and Rogers are staging the play, and that alone means that the two-night stand next week will draw two full houses. The city is to be flooded with advertising in a day or two, and nothing but boosting and advertising will be done by the band boys and those who are engineering the theatrical, until the event passes on record as the best the city has had in this line.

COUNTY REGISTRATION AGAIN.

The county registration books were opened again this morning at the county clerk's office, and will remain open until May 15. Those who registered for the primary election need not register again, but the books are open for those who failed to do his duty before the recent election and want to vote next June without the trouble of securing six freeholders to swear them in.

Practicing for Ball Game.

The high school baseball team is availing itself of every opportunity to practice for its game with Cove high school here next Saturday afternoon. Love and Union have each won one from the other, and La Grande necessarily has to defeat Cove on Saturday to walk off with laurels of the true style.

Many Teachers Coming.

County Superintendent E. E. Bragg expects nearly 50 teachers from the county schools to be present at the county teachers' meeting in this city next Saturday morning and early afternoon.

A Twenty Year Sentence.

"I have just completed a 20-year sentence, imposed by Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which cured me of bleeding piles just 20 years ago," writes O. S. Woolever of LeRaysville, N. Y. Bucklen's Arnica Salve heals the worst sores, boils, burns, wounds and cuts in the shortest time. 25c at Newlin's drug store.

Notice.

The La Grande Entertainment and Market Day association will have a meeting Thursday, April 23. All members are requested to be present at 8 o'clock. Meeting to be held in the Elks' building.
OAKLEY A. COFFIN, Sec.

Get Joy Papers.

Augustus Z. Heppner and Mrs. Mary A. Miller, both of Union, have taken out a marriage license.

Rummage Sale.

St. Peter's Guild will hold its spring rummage sale May 1 and 2, in the Slater building.

TONIGHT IS THE NIGHT

Tom Richardson is in the Grande Ronde valley and will be in La Grande tonight. Business men are ready for the mass meeting at the Elks' hall tonight, and there is no reason why there should be a vacant seat in that room before 8 o'clock, when the evening's program commences. Mr. Richardson spoke to an Elgin assembly of business men this afternoon, commencing at 1:30 o'clock, thus allowing him time to catch the La Grande train. He will be here this evening with all his characteristic boost and no one can afford not to hear him. Aside from listening to this speech La Grande citizens should be present to reorganize the commercial club. Come prepared to do something, with some line of procedure mapped out—and be ready to tell your fellow citizens about your plan. The doors are to be opened at 7:30 and the program, which includes addresses by local men, music and addresses by President Campbell of the State university, and Mr. Richardson, begin promptly at 8 o'clock.

SOCIETY.

Gibson Pictures Popular.

The Gibson pictures given by the ladies of the Lyle Tuesday Musical last evening was a success in every way. A large and appreciative audience greeted each number with enthusiasm. The pictures given were:

"A Hint to Fathers," by Mrs. J. J. Carr, Hugh McCall and Judge Crawford.

"Fortunes With Cards," Miss Huntstock and George T. Cochran.

"The Expert," Jean McDonald, Robert Newlin and little Adelaide Scroggin.

"Why She Didn't Get the Place," Miss Diequa, Mrs. Cavanna and Geo. T. Cochran.
