PURSE STRINGS CUT.

It required a little coaxing to get things moving right at the mass meeting last evening, but with his characteristic "stick-to-it" Tom Richardson soon had purse string untied and our business men responded nobly. Those who were not there, were placed on the calling list and will be given a chance to see what their brethren in business did do last night, and what they will do. Thirty-three hundred dollars is a considerable sum for an assembly of about 100 men to raise. Nice work. Let's stay with it!
