OPERA HOUSE BLOCK LA GRANDE, OREGON

REHEARSING EVERY NIGHT FIRST CONCERT ON SATURDAY CHILD STARTS SEVERE BLAZE

Another thorough rehearsal for "Brother Tom" was held at the Elks' hall last evening and the promoters of the home talent which will be given at the Steward on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings under the auspices of the La Grande band, are highly pleased with the results.

Every evening for two or three hours the parts are carefully rehearsed that the audience may be given a well prepared production. Every member of the cast and all the promoters are local people. The band "needs the money" and to get as much as possible, there will be no reimbursements to any one, every available cent of the receipts being given to the musical organization.

Elks' Day at Theater.
Manager Sherwood is donating the receipts from the Electric theater today to the Elks' building association. The pictures shown are above the average. "A Narrow Escape," and "A Modern Sampson" both deserve special mention, while Mr. Ferrin's rendition of "Two Blue Eyes" is making a great hit. "The Waif" portrays a story of unusual pathos. "The Tallman" is of a spectacular nature. The theater was well attended this afternoon and it is expected that all Elks, their families, their wives and sweethearts will be present tonight.

Free Tickets.
F. D. Halsten will give to every man, woman and child who makes a $1 purchase at his store, a ticket to the Electric theater. Thus you will see that a five dollar purchase will entitle you to five free tickets. Buy a $55 Acme range and receive 55 tickets free, and see the big show with us. F. D. Halsten.

The La Grande Entertainment and Market Day association held its regular weekly meeting last evening, and committees were appointed to perfect arrangements for the Saturday afternoon band concert and the automobile parade. A committee was also appointed to arrange for the holding of a grand stock show and market day Saturday, May 23. This will be the grand effort of the season so far as a market day feature is concerned. The committee will secure a list of every article and every animal will be listed and properly advertised throughout the whole of eastern Oregon. A thorough canvass of the county for stock will be made and it is the intention of the association to hold one of the greatest public sales ever held in Union county. The committee will begin the work of listing property at once and nothing will be left undone which will in any way tend to make the meeting a success.

The committee on Market day and stock show is composed of the following well known hustling stockmen: M. H. Kirtley, J. D. McKennon and Martin Larsen. A committee to prepare a constitution and by-laws was appointed with instructions to report at the next meeting, which will be held Monday evening. This committee consists of the following: A. V. Andrews, John Collier and Fred B. Curry.

The entertainment committee reported that arrangements had been made with the La Grande band to furnish music each Saturday afternoon and evening. This will become a regular feature and one which will be appreciated by the residents of the city as well as the valley.

The automobile committee, consisting of A. V. Andrews, R. W. Logan and G. M. Richey, will arrange for the grandest automobile parade ever held in eastern Oregon. An effort will be made to have every automobile in Union county in line Saturday, May 2. So far the committee has received splendid encouragement and there is no question but that the automobile show will be a complete success. The La Grande Saturday entertainments are becoming popular and will so continue.

The 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Johnson had a narrow escape from death by burning in a fire this morning which completely destroyed the Johnson building near the Alliance flouring mill, and which sent up in smoke every vestige of furniture and provisions the family owned.

An alarm was turned in during the late forenoon and the department was sent out to the outskirts where the house is located. Flames had ruined the structure and its contents in a remarkably short time. The department could only protect the adjoining structures, which are few. The loss is a complete one, but the insurance is about sufficient to cover it. The property is easily worth $1500.

The origin of the blaze was accidental, and almost cost the life of the little boy, one of a family of six children. The mother was in an adjoining room when the little fellow secured a coal oil lamp. It is supposed he threw it against the stove, for a terrific explosion brought Mrs. Johnson to the room, just in time to rush from the rooms with her child before flames had enveloped both of them. Their escape was narrow, but singed clothing was the only mark of the close call. The fire spread rapidly to all the rooms, forestalling all effort to remove furniture or valuables.

TAKE THIEF TO HAUNTS

The city recorder's court room this afternoon looks more like a shoe store than a hall of justice. O. R. & N. Detective Woods and Night Officer McLachlin returned this afternoon from Glover, where they had taken the box car thief, Smith, to locate the stolen property, with some 41 pairs of men's shoes. This consignment combined with the half dozen sacks already in stock makes the assortment complete. Smith will be arraigned before Judge Crawford and will plead guilty. The suspected forger is still under lock and key and will probably receive detailed attention some time tomorrow.

TRUANT OFFICER BUSY.

Young Fellow of School Age Not in School and Gets Caught.

A small boy of this city, who is out of school much more often than he is in school, fell under the arm of the law today when Truant Officer Faulk took the boy in charge and marched him up to the school principal's office. Proper punishment was administered, and unless he mends his ways in the near future, he will be sent to the reform school.

John Adams
Signer of the Declaration of Independence and second President of the United States

HERE we have a Puritan of the Puritans—a man of stern and unbending rectitude—of generous and truly heroic temperament.

Descended from a pious God-fearing New England family of Pilgrims and Pioneers (who were for generations brewers, maltsters, barley and hop growers) he became the mouthpiece of the Revolution—the terror of tyrants—a giant in debate—and diplomatically more than a match for Pitt and Talleyrand.

I would rather die than be dictated to—this sentence accurately describes the stubborn spirit of this valiant old patriot whom all England could not govern.

John Adams, even as his fathers before him, nourished mind and body on health-giving barley beer, and died at 91 (twenty-one years beyond the scriptural span) enjoying all his mental powers to the very last.*

*Familiar Letters—Riverside Press, N.Y., 1776, pages 22, 43, 46, 47, 79, 172, 230, 277. Life and works by his son, John Quincy Adams, Vol. 1, pages 6, 8, 9, 10, 11, etc. A letter to his wife, Abigail, May 22, 1777, says: "I would give $5.00 for a gallon of your beer."

Budweiser

THE most popular beer in the world. There is less profit to the dealer who sells it, because it costs more money at the brewery than any other beer made. A royal brew of malt and hops whose absolute sovereignty has never been challenged. Unquestionably—
