SPORTING

Gleanings From the Diamond and Track.

For the first time La Grande fans have seen their club aggregation in action. In an interesting practice game with the Eagles' team at the ball park yesterday afternoon, the professionals romped around the diamond in a highly pleasing manner. However, all was not perfect and the grandstand frequently expressed its dissatisfaction at the carelessness of some of the club players. The players are snappy, active and know the game, but not being pitted against their equals, the natural consequence was that the men were not up on their toes the way they would have been had a stronger aggregation faced them. Comments of a laudatory nature were numerous as the players went through their try-out.

Manager O'Brien has the "makin'" of a fast bunch. This was plainly evident yesterday. Lowdell, who heretofore has covered first base most admirably, and long since made a hit with fans, was off color yesterday and committed three bad ones. The infield, including O'Brien on the mid-way bag, VanHorst on third and Beck at short make up a speedy bunch. The way Beck at short covered his position was cause for joy to the fans. In the outfield the team is also strong, as demonstrated by the way the fielders pulled down everything coming their way. Big Zimmerman in the middle garden is as good as his avowed pupil. Isaacs is a sure footman and nailed some good ones yesterday. Kooser is too well known to need comment; his work was "up to snuff" as it always is.

O'Brien has a quartet of pitchers which is hard to numerate. Higgins opened the game yesterday and twirled for three innings. The only south-paw in the squad is Fucheu, who took the second three innings, and Cotteman finished. The grandstand was undecided who is the best of the three but agree that all are tip-top.

Behind the bat the manager has two strong ones. Emrick made a hit. He keeps working and talking simultaneously and equally well with the effect that he always keeps the team moving. His peg to second is nifty. Purdy got behind the mask after the sixth and, though he talks less, does as good work as Emrick.

The Eagles surprised everybody. Their work was first-class in view of the fact that this is the first time the men have had their suits on this year. The team erred frequently but were together most of the time. Only two plays were sensational: when Abegg, McClure and Ellsworth doubled and also when Alstott pulled down a "daisy" after a long sprint in left field.

The small score to which the club team was held is due in a large measure to the clever battery which was loaned by O'Brien. Hudson, the Grande Ronde boy, was pitching harder in the ninth than he was in the first. Behind the bat Fucheu made good. He has a whip to base that equals Emrick's.
