The best thing you can do with your wad, roll, pile, stockpile or whatever you may call your savings, is to put it where it is sure to grow and be safe while it is growing. The bank is the spot, and our bank is the right one in which to deposit your savings, both for security and good interest. Every man and woman ought to have an independent bank account. Let us show you how money grows when in our keeping.

MRS. TEMPLES TELEGRAM

'Mrs. Temple's Telegram' proved to be the dramatic surprise of last season in New York and London and will be presented at the Steward opera house for the first time May 8. The engagement is for one night only. The farce is mounted in the most lavish manner and employs a perfect company in its interpretation. Wm. Bernard and Margaret Snow are a combination of farceurs difficult to equal. They play with most perfect skill and the play runs smoothly and delightfully. One begins laughing with the first word spoken and does not stop until the final curtain falls. New complications arise every moment and the interest is sustained until the end of the play which comes suddenly and without the usual warning. 'Mrs. Temple's Telegram' is modestly announced as a farce, and so it is, technically speaking, but so skillfully played as to give to those who see it, the delight and satisfaction which attend a finished performance of comedy. It is a farce played as a comedy and thus treated, its clever situations, and entanglements which otherwise might seem strained and theatrical, become the 'real thing.' 'Mrs. Temple's Telegram' was originally produced by Walter N. Lawrence at the Madison Square theater, New York, and by special arrangement, Messrs. Stockwell and MacGregor have secured the rights to the play and in presenting it to La Grande theatergoers feel confident that it will duplicate the eastern success. A cast of clever comedians, headed by Wm. Bernard and Margaret Snow have been engaged and the scenic environments are of unusual merit.
