CROWDS ARE INCREASING

The Haudenschild meeting last evening was extremely interesting. The meeting was opened by a song service after which the choir sang. The Way of the Cross Leads Home." Prayer was then offered by Revs. Deal and Gibson. The Scripture lesson was the parable of the talents. The preacher said that it is just as important that the clock strike one, as that it strike 12. It is as much a duty to improve the one talent as to improve the five.

The hold which the meeting is getting upon the people was shown by the fact that though it was Monday evening, yet a larger audience was present than at any previous week day evening. The subject of this afternoon's Bible reading was "Hindrances to Prayer."

The text for the evening was, "Is it Well With Thy Soul?" 3d John, 2d verse. It is a question not often asked on the streets. An interest in men's soul's is of more importance than interest in the city, interest in business, in schools, in everything else. The biggest fool in the world is he who has to make the long, long journey and makes no preparation. There is no telling when you must make the journey. It is moral suicide not to get ready now.

It is manly to care for your soul. The best and bravest men in the world are Christians. It is a duty and no brave man shrinks from duty. No man can give one single good reason why he should not be a Christian, but scores why he should.

Everything a man has is loaned to him and he owes it to the giver to use it well. Ingratitude is one of the basest of crimes and yet that is the sin of the man who does not care for his soul.

The fact that every man has influence should make him care for his soul. Not only will a man reap what he sows, but he will also reap what his influence causes others to sow. You can't be honest with yourself, you can't be honest with those who look up to you unless you are a Christian. Father, your children are walking in your steps. Whither do those steps lead? For the sake of all whom you love, see to it that your footsteps lead to the land of light and not to the land of darkness.

In response to the invitation given for the first time, about a dozen persons went forward for prayer. A very earnest altar service was held.

Invalid Returns.

Robert Elliot of Elgin, who for the past six months has been in California for his health, returned this morning and went to Elgin on the noon train. He is suffering with rheumatism and made the return trip resting on a cot. His Elgin friends in La Grande made his wait here as easy as possible. He is a brother of Tom and Meade Elliot of Elgin.
