YOUR WORK

Is what we want. We don't call on you one week for it and tell you the next we cannot do it for you. We want it now, and all the time. We do not think it necessary at this time to say anything about the class of work we turn out. The fact that we have been in the LAUNDRY business for twelve years in La Grande we think sufficient evidence that our work is satisfactory. Try it.

MUSICAL ELECTION

The annual election of the Lyle Tuesday Musical took place yesterday at the home of Mrs. N. Mollitor. The new officers were: President, Mrs. E. C. Moore; vice-president, Mrs. Fred Currey; secretary, Mrs. Robert Newlin; treasurer, Mrs. E. Folsack; librarian, Mrs. C. J. Scriber.

It was decided to give a dance in the near future to raise funds to entertain the Women's Federation of clubs, which convenes here in October.

Reports show that during the year a large chorus of ladies voices had been organized and have at their command an extensive repertoire.

TUNNELING MOUNTAINS.

Work on Snake River Road is Progressing Very Satisfactorily.

Returning from an extended trip of inspection into the Cornucopia and Snake river country, Charles E. Porter, manager of the Baker telephone exchange, and Charles W. Reynolds, division superintendent of the Pacific Telephone company, who lives in Spokane, had many things to say of the wonderful work that is being done on the new Snake river railroad which is pushing its way into a vast empire heretofore shut out from the world because of no means of transportation, says the Baker City Herald. It was a revelation to both Mr. Porter and Mr. Reynolds to see the productiveness of Eagle and Pine valleys and note what splendid mining sections are located to the northeast of Baker. But the thing that interested them most was construction of the new road which, after lying dormant since the panic, was started again a few weeks ago.

Manager Thompson, of the Utah Construction company, who has the work in charge, has a small army of men employed and expects to put on many more. They are at work now tunnelling a mountain and Mr. Porter said it is quite a sight to see. Near the town of Copperfield is stationed the power plant which the air compressors, electric light plant and other machinery. On one side of the mountain is a crew of men drilling with the compressed air drills, and immediately on the opposite side of the same mountain is another crew at work driving a tunnel from either side. The compressed air is taken over the mountain from the Copperfield plant in a pipe and the air drills on the opposite side are run. An electric wire is carried over the mountain along with the air pipe and that furnishes light. People of that vicinity have hope that they will be able to ride to Baker City on a standard gauge railroad via Huntington before the snow flies another year.
