REPUBLICANS ARE BASHFUL.

Fail to Accept Invitation to Ride With the Governor.

Honeyed words and sugar plum persuasion have been used in large quantities by the Umatilla county democratic central committee to induce a party of prominent republicans to accompany Governor Chamberlain on his speech-making tour of Umatilla county this week.

Numerous leading republicans have been opportuned to make the trip through the country with the governor, but so far none have engaged seats in the automobile party, and it is likely that when the democratic senatorial candidate sallies out into the wilds of Umatilla county he will be accompanied solely by democratic brethren.

There is every evidence now throughout the county that the republicans are going to stand solidly for H. M. Cake and no amount of democratic persuasion will lead any members of the party astray.

It had been planned to have a large number of leading republicans accompany the governor's party to the east end of the county, just a matter of "courtesy" of course, but all the alluring invitations have been declined so far, and the republicans will reserve their trip until their candidate, H. M. Cake, visits Umatilla county in the near future.
