START NEW PUMP.

City Almost Ready to Inaugurate New Water Pumping Plant.

As soon as Water Superintendent Gilman returns from Pendleton, where he went this morning to acquaint himself with several details pertaining to the operation of the new pumping plant recently installed by the city of La Grande, the plant will be started and the water supply of La Grande will be maintained through a much improved and more economical system. The new motor and pump was run light yesterday afternoon and proved very satisfactory. However, the pressure is so great that the superintendent believes a relief valve will be necessary. While running light yesterday afternoon, the big 125-horse power motor operated perfectly. The new pump which has a capacity of 1400 gallons of water per minute, was also highly satisfactory in the light run.

Family Reunion in June.

The Rinehart family reunion, which annually brings together about 150 descendants of "Grandpa" and "Grandma" Rinehart, will be held in Summerville this year, commencing on June 17 and lasting until after the following Sunday. This annual reunion was held at Eugene last year. It is always a day of great rejoicing for members of the family. The association owns its own cooking utensils and makes merry for several days. On Saturday following the 17th, is "open day," and on that day the hundreds of friends of the family invariably throng the meeting place.

Stuck in the Mud.

The automobile which brought Governor Chamberlain to La Grande last evening from Union, ran amuck in the mud near the Hempe ranch and delayed arrival of the speaker of the evening. A telephone message to Union soon brought another auto on the way which picked up the stranded passengers and brought them into the city about one-half hour late. With the governor were Turner Oliver of this city, and G. W. Foster and Chas. Hyde of Baker City. These last named gentlemen left the Chamberlain party in La Grande.

Distributing Many Ties.

The O. R. & N. is distributing 15 carloads of ties between this city and Huntington. Roadmaster McCann will soon have an extra gang at work laying these ties. The large lot will make adequate improvement of all ties in that territory, that show signs of being faulty.

Notice.

All members of the Eastern Sta will meet at Masonic hall Sunday at 1 o'clock sharp, to attend the funeral of the late Mary Aldrich.
