OPEN SCHOOL AT 8 O'CLOCK

Although circus day is not a holiday in the city schools, still there has been some provision made by the school management which provides for some time to devote to the coming of the Norris & Rowe circus tomorrow. Schools will open at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning, and without a recess, will continue without recess until 10:30 o'clock, when dismissal for the forenoon will be given. This will give the students time to witness the parade. The afternoon session will be as usual.

Vacation is Near.
Two weeks from tomorrow sees the passing of the school year and the coming of the summer vacation. Reviews are the order of the day and during the last week, the final examinations will be held.

ED. BUSSEY GETS SEAT

The Sells name has been prominent for years in the show world. With the Sells family once worked many of the present day horsemen of the country. The Sells boys always kept a record of the employees who retired and entered other fields of labor and today that record is guarded and watched as if it were a Bible.

On one page of it is the name, "Ed. Bussey," and opposite the name is written: "One of the best drivers that ever occupied a seat." Then follows the instruction to see that he gets the best seat in the tent when the Sells show meets up with him.

Today Ed received a wire from the enormous Sells-Floto circus telling him that tickets for the best seats had been mailed him and asking that he drive the band wagon the day the big show is here, Friday, May 29. "I will sure drive that wagon for old employers," says Bussey.

HOUSE CHANGES NAME.

Sherwood's Electric Theater is New Name of Popular Show House. With two especially fine attractions and the remainder of a very high class, the Sherwood Electric theater announces its change for the rest of this week. "A Modern Sculptress" is one of those films which are full of magic and hand-painted work. Manager Sherwood announces it as a fine attraction. "In the Days of Louis XVI" is also a good attraction. In fact, there is not a weak film in the set and the theater should enjoy a splendid run the rest of the week. "Just for Tonight" is a song which is especially adapted for Mr. Ferrin's voice.

As will be noticed by the house ad. in this issue, the name of the show house has been changed from the New Electric, to Sherwood's Electric. This will forestall any conflict as to the names of the two houses in the city.

Sweeping Adams Avenue.
The business portion of Adams avenue received a thorough sweeping today with the result that the thoroughfare has the appearance of a front parlor, from a standpoint of cleanliness. Street Superintendent Matott is placing the streets of the city in a remarkably fine condition, much to the delight of everybody. Depot street was given the same treatment.
