PENDLETON GETS LAUREL

Points Won.
Pendleton, 45.
Baker City, 40.
Ontario, 16.
La Grande, 4.
Cove, 1.

Ontario was the dark horse in the Eastern Oregon track and field meet at Baker City, in which La Grande failed to show much strength, and which was anybody's meet until the relay was run. By winning 16 points, Ontario figured conspicuously and gave the death-scare to both Baker City and Pendleton all too frequently. When either of the leading teams needed a point to gain a lead over the other, Ontario generally managed to steal in and carry off an honor or two, making things extremely uncertain all around. Especially in the hurdles, was this true. Moody of Ontario was leading, and would undoubtedly have defeated Jay had he not fallen on a hurdle. The fall was disastrous to Baker City and it gave Pendleton the meet.

La Grande lost a place in the broad jump by the difference between three-eighths and three-fourths of an inch. Reynolds ran a remarkable race in the low hurdles. He fell twice, but even at that finished well up in front.

Young comes back as the team's only salvation from utter defeat. By winning an easy third in the pole vault and taking second in the high hurdles he placed La Grande on the score sheet.

Walters and Irwin of Island City, gave their team a total of 7 points. Walters won the quarter handily and pulled a third in the 100. Irwin landed a third in the fast half mile event.

The Summary.

The individual score was as follows: Orle Jay, 11; Arthur Means, 9; Lester Means, 8; Chester Gordon, 6; Nat Kimball, 5; Cliff Turner, 5; Glenn Storle, 1.

Moody of Ontario tied A. Means with 9 points for second individual score.
