YOUR WORK

Is what we want. We don't call on you one week for it and tell you the next we cannot do it for you. We want it now, and all the time. We do not think it necessary at this time to say anything about the class of work we turn out. The fact that we have been in the LAUNDRY business for twelve years in La Grande we think sufficient evidence that our work is satisfactory. Try it.

CAKE IS LOYAL

Despite the efforts to make it appear that H. M. Cake is not loyally favoring Statement No. 1, and making his campaign on that issue, the republican nominee for United States senator, H. M. Cake, stands as squarely on statement No. 1 today as he did when he opened his campaign in the republican primaries, says a Portland paper. Repeated attempts have been made to cloud the issue, and the intimation has been sent out that Mr. Cake is not as firm a believer in the doctrine as he originally announced himself.

These intimations and attacks were boldly met today by Mr. Cake in an interview to the Telegram. In this Mr. Cake does not equivocate and assures the voters of the state that in no respect has his view changed, and that he is advocating statement No. 1 today as he has for a long period. Last summer, when Mr. Cake was discussed as a possible nominee for senator, he said that if he entered the race it would be on a statement No. 1 platform, and he is still carrying out this plan.

Mr. Cake declares that Governor Chamberlain waited until after the primaries when he saw that he might profit by the advocacy of the statement, and now comes into the open and urges the statement and the election of democrats to the legislature. Regarding the counties where anti-statement men have been nominated for the legislature, Mr. Cake will not interfere. He contends that the people have selected their candidates and he refuses to follow the advice of Chamberlain, that he, Cake, antagonize the nominees who have been selected by the people. Chamberlain is advocating the election of independents who are running against anti-statement republicans and Cakes asks whether he or Chamberlain is abiding by the wish of the people.

Operation on Monkey.

A few days ago Mrs. Kate Bell of Los Angeles, who was visiting at San Francisco, attended the Sells-Floto circus. In the menagerie department she and her party of friends stopped at the monkey cage. They purchased peanuts and took turns feeding the Darwinians. The monkey named Wauseon became a favorite with the gaudy crowd. Apparently it had a lovely disposition. Mrs. Bell fed it a pint of peanuts when it came her turn to serve the bill of fare. All went well until the peanuts gave out, when Wauseon became enraged, and seizing Mrs. Bell's well Easter bonnet, tore it into pieces of straw. Wauseon also snatched a little gold locket Mrs. Bell had pinned on her bosom and deliberately swallowed it. The second day thereafter Wauseon was a very sick monkey. Drs. Ernie Houghton and Chris Seltz, the circus physicians, decided on the operation of gastronomy. Poor Wauseon went to the operating table in the circus hospital last Wednesday. The operation was successful and the locket was recovered. Wauseon is doing nicely and will be making goo-goo eyes here Friday, May 29. This monkey was once the property of the late Col. Hager who was a showman living at Wauseon and he gave it the name of his home place. He was born near La Grande. The Sells Floto circus with the monkey Wauseon, 1,000 people and horses, and big shows will arrive here Friday, May 29. The train is in four sections, each a double header. The day on the lot will be interesting. The horses and ponies will be scrubbed. The elephants will be massaged, and "Eacil," 200 years old, mother of Jumbo, will be given a buttermilk bath.

Street parade May 29 at 10 a. m. This free offering is fought by the circus trust. Sells-Floto give the parade because the people want it.

Doors to the big show—circus and wild west—will open 1 p. m. and 7 p. m. Performance at 2 p. m. and 8 p. m.

m. Seating capacity 20,000.

At Venice, Cal., recently the lion Taft was born in the Sells-Floto circus. The mother lion, "Virginia," three days ago, took suddenly ill. She is in the wild animal hospital and the chances of her recovery are slim. During these few days the baby lion would not take nourishment. The little fellow being named Taft for Hon. W. H. Taft, secretary of war and presidential candidate, is a valuable piece of show property, and it wouldn't pay to lose him. The question of nourishment has been solved by Mrs. James Hyatt, from near Mt. Auburn, Ind. Her contract with Sells-Floto is to nurse the baby lion Taft, and save his life. That Taft enjoys his new bit of fare was shown when he took his first warm meal since his mother was stricken ill. Those visiting the menagerie department just in time will see this wonderful and remarkable scene. Mrs. Hyatt is small in stature, a brunette, married, a mother of 12 children and a lover of animals.

Her case recalls the ancient story of the sucking of Romulus and Remus by the she wolf, except in this instance the beast and not the human creature is nursed.

The Sells-Floto circus will be in La Grande Friday, May 29.

The World's Best Climate

is not entirely free from disease, on the high elevations fevers prevail, while on the lower levels malaria is encountered to a greater or less extent, according to altitude. To overcome climate affections, lassitude, malaria, jaundice, biliousness, fever and ague, and general debility, the most effective remedy is Electric Bitters, the great alterative and blood purifier; the antidote for every form of bodily weakness, nervousness, and insomnia.
