BIG ROCKS FOR ROADBED

If rocks weighing from one to five tons each are able to resist the waters of Meacham creek, the O. R. & N. company will be troubled no more with washouts of its grade along the creek in the Blue mountains, says the Pendleton East Oregonian.

A steam shovel and work train, are now employed in getting out massive rock weighing all the way from one to five tons as foundations for the grade which is being built at the washouts and practically all of the grade recently destroyed will be replaced with this heavy material in the hope that a permanent foundation may be secured.

A monster steam shovel is at work in a rock quarry near Meacham and the side of the mountain is being blasted out in securing rock for the work.

The work of repairing the grade in this substantial manner will require practically all of the summer season, and a work train will be kept busy hauling rock and other material for the repairs.

If it were possible to change the grade to higher ground at the places where the track was damaged, this would be done, but there is no room in the narrow canyon for a change.

Consequently the company is determined to make a permanent grade and will use every device known to engineering to prevent the periodical washout in the Meacham creek canyon.

The work of laying heavier steel on the mountain is also progressing rapidly and soon the roadbed of the O. R. & N. on the Blue mountains will be a model of railroad building.

Moscow a Dry Town.

Vote Against Saloons More Than Two to One in Idaho Town.

Moscow, Idaho, May 21.—By a vote of 814 to 225 Moscow decided yesterday to become a dry town. The total vote of 1206 was larger than that ever polled at an election held here dealing with city affairs in the past, and this illustrates the great interest that was displayed in the question. The fight of the dry advocates today was largely directed by the ministers of the churches in the city, while the saloon men handled their own campaign. The business men took no interest in the contest, other than to vote.

Frank J. Dorsey, who was a student at the Pendleton business college, and has been in Spokane for a few weeks taking special work in stenography, has returned home and after a few days' visit with relatives here, will leave for La Grande, where he has accepted a position as stenographer for the Amalgamated Sugar company at that place.—Pendleton East Oregonian.

Best for Women and Children.

On account of its mild action and pleasant taste Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup is especially recommended for women and children. It does not irritate or grip like pills and ordinary cathartics. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup aids digestion and stimulates the liver and bowels without irritating them. Remember the name Orino and refuse substitutes. A. T. Hill, druggist.

Notice.

Sealed bids will be received for the city printing for the coming year. All bids to be in at the office of the city recorder by 1 o'clock p. m. May 20th. By order of the city and means committee.

Danger in a Cold

Because you have contracted ordinary colds and recovered from them without treatment of any kind, do not for a moment imagine that colds are not dangerous. Not only pneumonia, but also the infectious diseases such as diphtheria and scarlet fever start with a cold. The cold prepares the system for the reception and development of the germs of these diseases. Take our advice—cure your cold while you can.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy
by its remarkable cures of colds has become a staple article of trade and commerce. It is prompt; it is effective; it is reliable. Try it.

"SMOOTH WORDS" DON'T GO.

Old Soldier Answers Enticing Letter Sent Out by Gov. Chamberlain.

J. L. Carroll, adjutant of Kit Carson post of the G. A. R., of Pendleton, has just received an enticing circular letter from Governor Chamberlain, democratic candidate for the United States senate, urging the old soldier to vote for him for this high office and reciting the governor's many qualifications for the place.

Mr. Carroll replied to the letter of Governor Chamberlain as follows:

Pendleton, Ore., May 21, 1908.

Mr. George E. Chamberlain.
Dear Sir: I am a republican and can't be fooled by your smooth words to vote for you for United States senator. I am, like you, in your party: "Vote 'em straight every time." Hurrah for 'Cake! He will get my vote. Don't send these circulars to old soldiers. It is too thin.
J. L. CARROLL.

CONTEST NOTICE.

Department of the Interior,
U. S. Land Office, La Grande, Ore.,
May 19, 1908.

Sufficient contest affidavits having been filed in this office by Charles N. Farrer, contestant, against contestees, the unknown heirs of Christian Bechgaard, deceased, who made homestead entry . . . 13718, for 8 1/4 of NW 1/4 and NE 1/4 of SW 1/4 and NW 1/4 of SE 1/4, Sec. 24, Tp. 2 S., R. 36. E. W. M., on the 19th day of July, A. D. 1904, in which affidavits it is alleged that said Christian Bechgaard, died on or about September, A. D. 1906, and that at the time of his death, he left no widow and that the names and residence of his heirs are unknown; that prior to his death he had wholly abandoned said homestead, and that neither nor any of the heirs of said deceased, have, at any time since his death, resided upon or cultivated any portion of said land, and that he left no last will or testament, the said unknown heirs of said Christian Bechgaard are hereby notified to appear, respond and offer evidence touching the said allegations at 10 o'clock a. m. on 25th day of June, A. D. 1908, before the register and receiver at the United States land office in La Grande, Oregon.

The contestant having in a proper affidavit filed May 19, 1907, set forth facts which show that after due diligence personal service of this notice cannot be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given by due and proper publication.
F. C. BRAMWELL, Register.

The World's Best Climate is not entirely free from disease, on the high elevations fevers prevail, while on the lower levels malaria is encountered to a greater or less extent, according to altitude. To overcome climate afflictions, lassitude, malaria, jaundice, biliousness, fever and ague, and general debility, the most effective remedy is Electric Elixirs, the great alterative and blood purifier; the antidote for every form of bodily weakness, nervousness, and insomnia. Sold under guarantee at the Newlin Drug Co.'s drug store. Price 50c.
