OREGON RURAL CARRIERS IN CONVENTION FRIDAY.

Abundance of Roses and General Good Time at Portland After June 1. When the Big Festival Takes Place—New Notes From Over the State of Oregon.

Portland, May 25.—(Special correspondence.)—The Oregon Rural Letter Carriers' association will hold their convention at Albany Friday, the 29th. Secretary-Treasurer John H. Goins of the association, is a resident of Albany, and in connection with Bury I. Dasant, secretary of the Albany Commercial club, is arranging an intensely interesting program. The motto and banner of the rural letter carriers is, "Stand for better roads and a greater Oregon." President John H. Scott of the Oregon Good Roads association, President Campbell of the University of Oregon, and other distinguished speakers will be present.

Oswego, one of the oldest and best known of Portland's suburban towns, is determined to organize, incorporate and give other live Oregon communities proof that an old town beats them all growing when she gets started good and proper.

Your correspondent has inside information that there will be all kinds of roses for the great festival which begins June 1 and lasts until the 6th, with a program full of interest from the opening moment until the closing hour, with low rates from every point in Oregon.

All Oregon seems to have been aroused and enthused over the new home of the Portland Commercial club. At one luncheon last week there were representatives from 15 different towns and cities of the state. The convention hall on the sixth floor, in which all Oregon's organized bodies will be welcome, is a central feature. Every picture hung upon its walls is an Oregon scene, and in this room during the next few years will be enacted much of interest and moment to every man, woman and child of Oregon.

Ashland is especially prosperous and happy. A line of shade trees to the number of 400 have been planted on either side of the boulevard, leading from the city to the Normal school, and new residences are encroaching upon surrounding orchards.

Astoria covered herself with glory, affording her citizens and visitors reserved seats to witness the passing of the fleet.

Excursion parties from California, Washington and Idaho will be added to those which come from all points in Oregon to Portland during the Rose festival.

Arrangements are being perfected by the executive committee of the Portland Commercial club, to secure the corner, ground floor room in the new Commercial Club building for an exhibit of Oregon products. This room is practically a large glass case—the principal electric cars between the business section and the Union depot pass constantly. Portland business men are willing to pay the expenses, but they want to be first assured of a permanent exhibit worthy of Oregon, and the co-operation of the different sections of the state is all that is necessary to make the undertaking a success.

Attention G. A. R. and W. R. C. All members of the G. A. R. and W. R. C. are requested to meet at the I. O. O. F. hall Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, in order to attend the Memorial services at the Baptist church. I. W. FAULK, Commander.
