STODDARD LUMBER CO.

A Veritable Monstrosity.
One day this week there was at Astoria, Ore., a very unique freak of nature. It was a lamb that had been sent to the taxidermist at Boise. It was now mounted. It had two and a half bodies, all joined at the head; there was one head, eight legs, two tails, three eyes and four ears.

The two bodies were standing at almost right angles to each other, each one having two hind legs and a foreleg; being joined at the neck, there was the need of but the one foreleg to each body. The half body was between the other two and fastened with them to the neck. There were the two eyes in the normal position, and a third eye at the back of the head, and this was flanked by two perfectly formed ears. What is wonderful (if anything could be deemed queer about a thing that had so little regularity about it) is that the two legs supporting the half body were placed as if they were to walk backward.

The most unnatural feature was the face. It looked almost exactly like the face of a very old man; the prominent nose, a mouth toothless, and the protruding chin all very humanlike, except that there was the natural covering of wool. Such a monstrosity should be in the Smithsonian Institute.

It Pays to Preach.
That it pays to preach and that spectacular preaching is in demand is shown by the fact that Oklahoma City Baptists have made every effort to secure Rev. J. Whitcomb Brouger to be pastor of White Temple church at that place at a great advance in salary. He is also wanted in New York and Boston by churches paying a salary of $10,000 per year. An item from the Baptist convention at Oklahoma City, says:

Dr. J. Whitcomb Brouger, pastor of the White Temple, in Portland, Ore., may receive a call to Oklahoma City. The pulpit of the White Temple in Oklahoma City is soon to be vacant.

Cow Killed.
The excursion train over the Central to Cove Friday night of last week bumped a cow off the track near the Wright ranch, derailing the tender and forcing the train to return to Union. There were about 70 people on the train at the time, though no damage was done except to the cow, which was killed. The animal was the property of Fred Nodine.—Union Republican.

Proposition Dropped.
The plan to submit to the voters of the city of Union a proposition to so amend the city charter as to permit the issuance of bonds for the construction of an electric lighting plant has been dropped for the present, owing to the fact that sufficient data could not be secured in time to present to the people at the June election.—Union Republican.

Try it if you are not making the headway you hoped. Cold as our cream is it will warm her heart toward you if you give her enough of it.

YOUR WORK

We do not think it necessary at this time to say anything about the class of work we turn out. The fact that we have been in the LAUNDRY business for twelve years in La Grande we think sufficient evidence that our work is satisfactory. Try it.

Best for Women and Children.

On account of its mild action and pleasant taste Orin's Laxative Fruit Syrup is especially recommended for women and children. It does not nauseate or gripe like pills and ordinary cathartics. Orin's Laxative Fruit Syrup aids digestion and stimulates the liver and bowels without irritating them. Remember the name Orin and refuse substitutes. A. T. Hill, druggist.
