

Training Week Day by Day.
 May 30.—Among the important events scheduled for the coming week are the following:
Monday.
 Commencement week exercises at United States naval academy will be held at Annapolis.

 Annual session of Naval War college conference begins at Newport, R. I.
 General state election will be held in Oregon, when a single tax measure will be passed on and local option elections held in 18 counties.
 Brotherhood of Boilermakers and Iron Shipbuilders meets in St. Paul.
 Annual rose festival and civic jubilee begins in Portland, Ore., and will continue through the week.
 City of Kingston, N. Y., will celebrate the 250th anniversary of its founding.
 Charlemagne Tower will be succeeded as American ambassador at Berlin by Dr. David J. Hill.
Tuesday.
 Republican National committee will convene in Chicago to consider contests for seats.
 Independent Order of Good Templars, International lodge, convenes in Washington.
 National Wholesale Grocers' association convenes at Atlantic City, N. J.
Wednesday.
 Centennial anniversary of birth of Jefferson Davis will be celebrated by Confederate veterans throughout the south.
 Second parade of Pennsylvania WOLA HIGGS association will take place in Philadelphia.
 Presbyterian church in Canada

meets in general assembly at Winnipeg, Man.
Thursday.
 Primaries to select delegates to the democratic national convention and to nominate state officers and a candidate for United States senate will be held in Georgia.
 Association of Employed Officers of the Young Men's Christian associations of North America will meet in Atlantic City, N. J.
Friday.
 King Edward will start for Russia, on the royal yacht, and will meet the czar in the Baltic.
 National convention of the Young Women's Christian association will open in Asheville, N. C.
Saturday.
 Power boat race from North Carolina to Bermuda, a distance of 650 miles, will start from New York.

Pendleton Anti-Saloon Rally.
 The great anti-saloon mass meeting has been arranged for Pendleton and the surrounding country and towns for Sunday afternoon.
 People are coming in their automobiles from Athens, Weston, Adams, Milton, and some will be up from Hermiston and Echo. It is possible that former Mayor Esteb of Echo will be here to make a few remarks in connection with the meeting, but the chief speaker will be President Penrose of the Whitman college, Walla Walla. He will speak from the steps of the court house, no building being large enough to hold the people who will be here. A large chorus choir will be at hand and such songs as "The Saloons Have Gone Out of Georgia" and "Where is My Wandering Boy Tonight" will be sung, some by a large choir and others by a chorus of little girls from all over the city.
 It will be a gathering of many of the temperance workers.
 The subject of President Penrose's address will be "Prohibition and Prosperity." Dr. Smith is expected to introduce the speaker for the occasion. The meeting will be held at the court house steps at 3 o'clock.

Cattle for Sale.
 Fifty head of stock cattle, cattle in good condition; now on range. Inquire of
 H. WETZEL,
 Meacham, Oregon.
