ANTI-SALOON.
 This space belongs to the Temperance forces of Union County.

who can write the story of the work done in and by the La Grande saloons during the past 19 years? What a volume it would make! It is written in tears and in blood.

It tells of innocent childhood robbed of a father's love and support, of young manhood blighted, of sweet girlhood betrayed, of fond wifehood and motherhood crushed and hurried to eternity. It is a story of brawls and fights, of political dishonesty and graft, of intimidation and boycott, of bribes paid for protection and retaliation upon those who could not be bought. It is embellished with profane and vulgar songs and stories of fallen men and women, and with pictures and cards not allowed in the malls.

The story speaks of men capable of high and noble callings, who, for the sake of "easy money" have been heedless of an old mother's advice, have spurned the warnings of friends and have entered a business that robs them of their own self-respect and in time unfits for worthy business.

This story tells of an old man, a drunkard for years, who wished to reform and was making a desperate fight, being treated again and again, then wild with appetite he pawns clothing, drinks, shivers, curses self and goes deeper into sin. It tells of a wife's earnings stored and spent by a drunken husband while baby is cold.

It tells of boys of 18 sold liquor repeatedly and mothers robbed of those for whom they have willingly faced death.

We read of girls not yet 16 enticed into private rooms, wined, sweetened, wine, drugged and debauched.

The story abounds in wild orgies, where passion and appetite run riot, where decency is forgotten, and men and women shame the brute creation. And this story, which is not exaggerated, is the story of liquor selling and drinking in La Grande. It is the story of La Grande's partnership in the business, for we, for a price, have betrayed sons and daughters, fathers and mothers. On Monday, June 1, we are asked: "Shall we continue the story?"

If we vote for license we vote for all the traffic does. If we want the story ended, we shall say so by our ballots.

WHOSE BUILDINGS?
 Don't shed crocodile tears in sympathy for the liquor men who own La Grande saloon buildings. What sympathy have they for your folks? Who owns the buildings, anyhow? Only two are occupied by the owners, E. Thorson and U. Lotter. The Palace, Mint, Brunswick, State, and Owl are owned by Portland people. Steve Gardiner owns the Hickory and Oxford. Mrs. A. Sommer, the Castle. Charles Binder, the Louvre. Here are nine, including the big ones, owned by outside parties. Big rents go out every month. Think it over!

FOR RENT—Six rooms, en suite, in Lewis building, with water and toilet upstairs.

BIG CROWDS EXPECTED.

Team Here From Baker City and a Bumper Crowd Expected Out Sunday.
 The Baker City league team arrived in this city this morning and has taken up quarters in the Smith rooming house. For a period of four days the team will stay here, playing the second series of the Inland Empire league.

In view of the fact that a brief holiday was declared by the merchants today, the crowd at the opening game was large. The attendance today is a mere handful compared with what is expected out tomorrow afternoon when the second game of the series is scheduled. The game starts promptly at 3 o'clock and if expectations fall not, the grandstand and the bleachers will fairly groan under their load.

SENATOR TALKS OVER 10 HOURS

and his knees were sore. He spent some time in a chair, having explained his physical condition at the beginning of his speech, but as he talked he became interested and though he leaned on the back of his chair, he stood most of the time. He went directly to a barber shop, where he joked and talked as he was being shaved. He spurned the offer of a carriage and walked to his home. After sleeping a few hours it is his intention to return to resume his speech.

Today's program is that Senator Gore of Oklahoma will follow Stone, and then La Follette will begin again. Stone is expected to speak several hours.

The longest previous filibuster was conducted by Allen of Nebraska in 1890, when he defeated the silver purchase law. The surprising feature of the La Follette filibuster is the support he has received, when, as the only republican opposing the measure, he appealed to the democrats for aid. Aldrich tried to get a vote on the adoption of the conference report, but Stone was on his feet, ready to talk, and the motion was not put. Stone being recognized by the chair, Stone said:

"I am going to follow the lead of the Wisconsin senator. I am more than with him in this fight." Members frequently interrupted him saying they couldn't hear, but he refused to strain his voice. He read lengthy editorials and pamphlets relative to the currency question. Aldrich often interrupted him with questions.

At 12:30 Stone was still speaking. The leaders are planning to prevent La Follette from speaking again by enforcing a rule preventing a senator speaking twice on the same day on the same subject. If this point is made La Follette will have to yield the floor for the introduction of bills and will argue the interruption made him speak twice.

Counterpart Never Seen.
 This nation has never seen a counterpart of this day and the compromise currency bill seems doomed to be talked to death. The executioners were wonderfully well chosen.

Stone is not at all tired by his long speech, and Gore is still fresh and anxious for the fray. Both are orators of wonderful ability.

It is freely predicted that the oratorical contest which began yesterday morning will still be in full blast a church time tomorrow. As no definite time has been set for adjournment he men conducting the filibuster must talk on and on till they simply wear out their opponents or themselves.

Bulletin.
 Washington, D. C., May 30.—The filibustering tactics pursued since yesterday failed late this afternoon and a conference report on the currency bill was adopted by a vote of 4 to 23. La Follette voted in the affirmative so he could move to reconsider, saying he would continue the fight indefinitely.

RINK MEETING.

Both Sides of the Liquor Question Invited to Speak Sunday.

The anti-saloon forces have rented the rink and invited men who are in favor of saloons to present their ideas tomorrow at 8 p. m. the closing meeting of the campaign will be held. The following citizens have been invited to speak:

J. D. Gillilan, from a lodge man's viewpoint.
 Julius Roesch and J. B. Stoddard from the standpoint of men favoring the liquor traffic.

O. C. Fishman, W. L. Brenholts, F. E. Holm and Fred Taylor, each from his own point of view.
 Special music by L. D. S. choir.
 Come early or stand. The hall can accommodate a thousand people.

SAME OLD MEN.

Old-Time Politician Can See But Little Change in Political Matters.

Hon. J. L. Roe of Farmington, Wash., is in the county again after an extended stay in his late home, and when asked as to his conclusion of modern politics compared with the politics of the eighties when the gentleman represented Union county in the Oregon legislature, he replied: "There is no particular variance from the old. I see the same old candidates are still running. Tod Rinehart and Turner Olive are still in the game."

He who votes or offers to vote illegally is upon conviction subject to confinement in the county jail for a period of three months to a year, or to pay a fine of from $100 to $200, according to the discretion of the court.

NEW MANAGEMENT.

Messrs. Bunker and Roesch Purchase Bakery and Will Start Ice Cream Parlor.

The Royal bakery in this city has changed hands, and after Monday morning Messrs. Walter Bunker and Herman Roesch will have full ownership and management. Mr. Bunker has until a day or two ago been connected with the McKennon bakery, as baker, and has long since acquired proficiency in his line. Mr. Roesch is lately of Philadelphia, and is an expert in baking fancy cakes.

In connection with the bakery will be conducted an ice cream parlor of some-made ice cream. Mr. Roesch is also an expert at making ice cream. The partitions of the rear of the bakery will be taken down and an ice cream parlor arranged in which will be served dainty cakes with the homemade ice cream. P. A. Foley is the retiring proprietor.

PARKER FOR CHAIRMAN.

Peace-Making Move Made by Leaders of Eastern Democrats Today.

New York, May 30.—The announcement that Alton B. Parker has been chosen by Tammany for chairman of the committee on resolutions at the Denver democratic convention, is looked upon as extremely significant on the efforts of party leaders to establish harmony in the east. For a long time it was believed W. J. Bryan would have a hard time with the democrats' estate, but it now appears that the commoner has been accepted as almost a certain nominee.

Parker blamed Bryan for his defeat at the last presidential race and less than four months ago gave an interview criticizing the Nebraskan.

State Chairman Conners has said repeatedly he believed any of the half dozen men can make a better race than Bryan. The fact that Tammany has agreed on Parker for the chairmanship is a practical assurance that Conners does not object.

To Republican Voters

AN OVERWHELMING majority of Oregon voters by registration have formally declared that they believe in the principles of the republican party. Let them now show that they are honest by voting in accordance with their declarations. The Oregon election comes before the republican national convention. Let every uphold the honor of the republican party in Oregon and strengthen influence of Oregon's delegation in the national convention by voting for H. M. Cake for United States Senator, and W. R. Ellis for Representative in congress. If either of these republican nominees fail of election the primary election system will be discredited and a return of boss rule will be invited. The good name of Oregon's voters will be smirched and Oregon's delegation to the national convention will be placed in a humiliating position. For the effect it will have on the November election it is imperative that the republican nominees in the June election shall be elected by an overwhelming majority. As a believer in the principles of the republican party it is your duty to be at the polls June 1st, and vote for Cake and Ellis.
