TITLE MEN ORGANIZE

J. K. Wright, of the La Grande Investment company in this city, is home from Portland, where he and Mrs. Wright attended the rose festival and where Mr. Wright was present at the initial meeting of the Oregon Title association. A large number of title men from points in Oregon met at the metropolis to effect an organization that will prove mutually beneficial. The purpose of the meeting was to perfect an organization and then to have that body take up and establish many interesting precedents in the way of uniformity in abstracting, the regulation of fees and to keep abreast with modern legislation along lines that touch upon the field of the abstractor. Officers were elected, and many important committees appointed. Mr. Wright's name appears on several of the important ones.

This is the first organization of its kind in Oregon, and the abstractors of this state who are affiliated with the state body are also members of the national association which was formed not many years ago.

Wood Choppers Wanted.

Work at good wages for at least 100 able-bodied men is now to be found at the wood camps of Kamela and Meacham. Wood dealers find it impossible to secure men to cut wood for the winter market and as a consequence, a shortage of Blue mountain wood is threatened, says the Pendleton East Oregonian.

Wood dealers are now offering $1.10 per cord for wood cutters, but so far none have been found to take the jobs at this price. At this price a good man can make from $2.50 to $3 in a 10-hour day and while many men are tramping the railroad tracks these jobs are still beckoning for laborers.

A year ago wood dealers were forced to pay as high as $2 per cord to get wood cut, but the reduced prices of wood in this city and Walla Walla and the higher freight rate from Kamela and Meacham to this city have reduced the price of wood cutting to $1.10 on the mountains.

As there is but little wood on the mountain dumps and as no men are now at work cutting a supply for next winter, wood dealers are expecting to have difficulty in securing sufficient to carry them through next winter.

Recently the O. R. & N. company added 25 cents per cord to the freight rate from Kamela to this city and Walla Walla, making the rate $1.50 to this city and $1.75 to Walla Walla.

Was Wasting Away. "I had been troubled with kidney disease for the last five years," writes Robert R. Watts of Salem, Mo. "I lost flesh and never felt well and doctored with leading physicians and tried all remedies suggested without effect. Finally I tried Foley's Kidney Cure and less than two bottles completely cured me and I am now sound and well." During the summer kidney irregularities are often caused by excessive drinking or being overheated. Attend to the kidneys at once by using Foley's Kidney Cure. A. T. Hill.
