There can be no comforting confidence when eating alum baking powder food. Chemists say that more or less of the alum powder in unchanged alum or alum salts remains in the food.

Aged Man Arrested.

Late this afternoon a complaint was sworn to in the city recorder's court, charging F. M. Bartmes, who maintains a real estate office on Elm street, with soliciting for a hawdy house. He was arrested and will be tried tomorrow.

Later—Bartmes changed his plea to guilty and was fined $5.

They Stand Alone.

Standing out in bold relief, all eyes and as a conspicuous example of open frank and honest dealing with the sick and afflicted, are Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for weak, ailing, nervous, debilitated, nervous, run-down, pinched, wrenched, and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the famous remedy for weak stomach, indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver, or biliousness, all intestinal affections, whether of the stomach, liver, kidneys, bladder, nasal passages, throat, bronchia, or other mucous passages, also as an effective remedy for all diseases arising from thin, watery or impure blood, as scrofulous and skin affections.

Each bottle of the above medicines bears upon its wrapper a badge of honesty in the full list of ingredients composing it—printed in plain English. This frank and open publicity places these medicines in a class all by themselves, and is the best guaranty of their merits. They cannot be classed as patent or secret medicines for they are neither—being of known composition.

Dr. Pierce feels that he can afford to take the afflicted into his full confidence and lay all the ingredients of his medicines freely before them because these ingredients are such as are endorsed and most strongly praised by scores of the most eminent medical writers as cures for the diseases for which these medicines are recommended. Therefore, the afflicted do not have to rely upon Dr. Pierce's recommendation as to the curative value of his medicines for certain easily recognized diseases.

A glance at the printed formula on each bottle will show that no opium and no harmful or habit-forming drugs enter into Dr. Pierce's medicines, they being wholly compounded of glyceric extract of the roots of native American forest plants. These are best and safest for the cure of most lingering, chronic diseases. Dr. E. V. Pierce can be consulted free, by addressing him at Buffalo, N. Y., and all communications are regarded as sacredly confidential.

It is as easy to be well as ill—and much more comfortable. Constipation, the cause of many forms of illness, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure expertly. They are tiny, sugar-coated granules. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, two a mild cathartic. All dealers in a medicine sell them.

Cured After Physicians Said Had Consumption.

E. H. Jones, Pastor M. E. Church, Grove, Md., writes: "About seven or eight years ago I had a very severe cold which physicians said was very near pneumonia, and which they afterwards pronounced consumption. Through a friend I was induced to try a sample of Foley's Honey and Tar, which gave me so much relief that I bought some of the regular size. Two or three bottles cured me of what the physicians called consumption, and I have never had any trouble with my throat or lungs since that time."
