Treasury Department, Office of the Secretary, Washington, D. C., June 8, 1908.

Proposals will be received, to be opened at 2 o'clock p. m., July 15, 1908, for the sale or donation to the United States of a suitable site, centrally and conveniently located, for the federal building to be erected in La Grande, Oregon. A corner lot, of (approximately) 130x135 feet, is required. Each proposal must give the price, the character of foundations obtainable, the proximity to street cars, sewer, gas and water mains, etc., and must be accompanied by a diagram indicating the principal street, the north point, the dimensions and grades of the land, the widths and paving of adjacent streets and alleys, whether the alleys are public or private, and whether or not the city owns land occupied by sidewalks. The vendor must pay all expenses connected with furnishing evidences of title and deeds of conveyance. Improvements on the property must be reserved by the vendor; but pending the commencement of the federal building they may remain on the land upon payment of a reasonable ground rent. The grantor must, however, remove all improvements on thirty days' notice so to do. The right to reject any proposal is reserved. Each proposal must be sealed, marked "Proposals for federal building site at La Grande, Oregon," and mailed to the secretary of the treasury, (supervising architect), Washington, D. C. No special form of proposal is required or prescribed.

Gruesome Find in Pasco.

William Reiman, who has just returned from accompanying a shipment of cattle to the east, tells of a gruesome experience which he had in Pasco, which is hard to beat. Pasco, says Mr. Reiman, is filled with hoboes, and a man is far safer on his own stock car than any place. On the night he was there he and his companion left the train to hunt something to eat. As they were crossing the narrow stretch of country between the stock tracks and the town, their nostrils were assailed by a dreadful stench. Upon investigation they found the body of a man lying in the sand. It was badly decomposed and near it was an old grip. Since then officers have arrested a man charged with the crime, but on account of the great number of hoboes passing it is doubtful if the real murderer will ever be discovered.—Pendleton Tribune.

The Story of Rexall

REX means "king," and the combination makes Rexall "king of all."

We have proven time and time again that Rexall Remedies are kings above all others.

For more than two years an expert travelled all over the world in search of extra-ordinary remedies. When he heard of a certain cure of any nature he did not rest until he personally could see the effect of the prescription used. Where he found the remedy perfect he purchased the prescription, but it was never used until the properties had been thoroughly analyzed by the chemists and physicians of the United Drug Company.

The Best Pills Ever Sold.

"After doctoring 15 years for chronic indigestion, and spending over $200, nothing has done me as much good as Dr. King's New Life Pills. I consider them the best pills ever sold," writes E. F. Ayscue, of Ingleside, N. C. Sold under guarantee at Newlin's drug store, 25c.

A Pertinent Question.
