JOSEPH WILL CELEBRATE

THREE DAYS OF FINE
ATTRACTIONS IN JULY.

Sports, Patriotic Exercises and Religious Program Among the Things That Are Scheduled for Joseph—Spectacular Fireworks at Night.

Joseph, June 20.—(Special.)—The citizens of Joseph are making great preparations for a three-day celebration at the head of Wallowa lake, near here. On Friday, the 3rd, the program as outlined will consist of sports of all kinds, and a general good time. On Saturday, the main day, the program will consume the forenoon with a grand barbecue at dinner, following. A baseball game between the teams of Enterprise and Joseph is scheduled for each day. On Sunday a religious program will be given. Music is to be furnished by the Enterprise band, reinforced by Joseph players. Fireworks on the Fourth will be operated from a hill back of the lake, and the reflection in the crystal waters of Wallowa will lend a most beautiful and entrancing feature to the event.

The officers named for the occasion are: Colon R. Eberhard, president of the day; M. V. Knight, marshal of the day; F. F. McCully, chairman of executive committee. The orator selected is Stephen A. Lowell, of Pendleton. Prof. A. G. Smith of the Joseph schools, will read the declaration of independence.

Feed racks and camping grounds for visitors have been arranged, and everything possible is to be done to make it worth the while of everybody who will, to celebrate at Joseph.

Snow in Baker City.
The few flakes of snow that fell today marks an epoch in climatic conditions of Baker City. According to Weather Observer Grunow, who consulted his official record, today's snow is the latest that has fallen in 19 years, and possibly for many years before that time.—Baker City Herald.

BAKER CITY MAN IN LAND FRAUDS

VICE-PRESIDENT OF BANK ARRESTED TODAY.

Vice-President J. H. Parker of the First National Bank in Baker City, Hauled on the Carpet on a Charge of Wilful Perjury.—Bank is Largest in Eastern Oregon—Released on Bonds After Being Halted Before United States Commissioner.

Baker City, Ore., June 20.—J. H. Parker, vice-president of the First National bank of this city, one of the biggest banks in eastern Oregon, was arrested on two indictments charging wilful and corrupt perjury in connection with timber land claims. It caused a great sensation here.

Parker was taken before United States Commissioner C. A. Moore, and released on bonds of $2000.

The bank of which Parker is vice-president is one of a string of banks in eastern Oregon and Washington of which United States Senator L. V. Ankeny is the controlling spirit.

FROM COUNTY EXCHANGES

(Elgin Recorder.)

Mrs. G. C. Mapes is in Portland, where she recently underwent an operation at the hands of a specialist to relieve a nasal affection.

Mrs. J. G. Brown, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Hazel, left on Monday evening's train for Portland, where the latter is to undergo a surgical operation for appendicitis.

Sheriff F. P. Childers was down from La Grande Tuesday on official business. Frank's election, together with the fact that he is now "grandfather" makes him a happy man.

"Uncle Joe Harris, a pioneer resident of this city, left Wednesday in company with his wife, for Portland where he goes to consult a specialist regarding his eyes. Mr. Harris has been nearly blind for some time and hopes to secure some relief.

J. H. Cowan, a former well known Elgin resident and ex-assessor of Union county, returned last Saturday from an absence of several months at Coos Bay and points in southern California. Since leaving Elgin Mr. Cowan has spent most of his time in the Coos Bay section, but recently located at Le More, Cal., where his family is at the present time, and to which place he will return shortly.

(Union Scout.)
