BRASEL SUES THE O. R. & N.

LA GRANDE MAN ASKS FOR $25,000 DAMAGES.

Old Employe of the O. R. & N. Who Sustained Bad Injuries Some Time Ago, Wants Damage Money—Mr. Brasel Suffered Long and Severely. Ezra G. Brasel of this city, through his attorneys, Lomax & Anderson of Baker City, has filed suit against the O. R. & N. company, asking for $25,000 damages as the result of injury sustained from a fall from the foot-board of a locomotive in January, 1907, while engaged in washing the boiler of the locomotive. The complaint alleges that the railroad company was negligent, and that no hand-rail, such as is usual alongside locomotive boilers, was provided; that as a result the plaintiff sustained a fall, and that his leg was broken and had to be amputated; that ever since he has suffered great pain and mental anguish and is permanently disabled. Brasel fell from the running board of the locomotive boiler of which he was engaged in washing, on January 22, 1907. His right leg was fractured just above the ankle, the bones sticking out through the flesh.

"Has Beens" Loosening Up.

Several "has beens" were out last evening loosening up their joints in preparation for the great exhibition of the national pastime on July Fourth, with a group of old fogies from Union will don the knee breeches, spikes and abbreviated shirt sleeves. The performance was too good to be humorous. Some of the speedy ones in the bunch are Ray Logan and Lute Dunn, who not so many years ago traveled with fast baseball company.

Last Opportunity.

This is the last opportunity to see the strong attraction at the Sherwood Electric. After tonight the house will have a new set of films. The week-opening set has been a trade stone for more than the regular number of patrons. The songs are especially catchy.

More New Firemen.

New men are being drafted into the ranks of firemen out of this city, due to the rush of business. Those to come in since Mr. Kautson was given his examination and passed, are Stafford, Nyron and Mensing. These three were given examination recently and are now in the service.

Clever Letter Artist.

Rudolph Becker, one of the hostlers at the round house, has a gift for lettering, and the board in the "dog house" is an artistic thing. He has solved the "Old English" style of lettering perfectly and the permanent names on the board are worked out with considerable skill.

SOCIETY.

Stillwell-Duryea.

The marriage of M. A. Stillwell and Miss Juanita Duryea will take place this evening at 8 o'clock at the Methodist church, Rev. J. D. Gillian performing the ceremony. Alvah Duryea will give the bride away. Winnie Ormond is to be bridesmaid and Walter Bunker will act as best man. Mrs. Sherwood Williams will play the wedding march. The bride will wear white crepe de chine over white silk and her veil caught in place by orange blossoms. The groom will appear in a suit of black. The church and home are decorated in a profusion of flowers. After the ceremony a reception will be held from 8:30 to 10:30 at the home of the bride's mother, 1910 Second street. Light refreshments will be served. Many beautiful presents have been received. The young people are both very well known in this city.
