CIRCUIT SHOW

Charles and Oakley Coffin will this week inaugurate a circuit picture show that will reach at least three points in the valley, and perhaps four. Show houses have been rented and equipped in Elgin, Cove and Union and arrangements are now on for installing a branch house in Hot Lake. The week will be divided between these three or four places, thus insuring up-to-date attractions for all the towns. Oakley Coffin will operate the machines while Mr. Charles Coffin will attend to the other matters. The show will be of a high-class and very much similar to those now being operated in La Grande. The promoters hope to have the circuit perfected and in working order by the last of this week.

The Old Songs of the South.
The melodies of the good old times will be certainly well entertained next Monday at the Steward opera house with the delightful tunes of the old southern ballads of the times "Befo' de war." The Nashville Students have always been a company, especially selected by the management for their singing quality. It has long been conceded that no one can get the harmony and music out of those songs like the real darkey. There is also added to the entertainment, plenty of good, clean comedy, and some of the latest and most popular ballads of the present time. The show is especially for ladies and children. There is nothing so entertaining as a good singing show, and the management of the Nashville Students certainly had that in mind when he selected the present company. From the time the curtain goes up, there is always something doing, either in singing their old southern ballads, for which the negro is noted, or some of the latest songs of the day with the entire company singing the chorus. If you can afford only one show this season, don't miss this one, the best of all colored shows. Seats on sale seven days in advance. Popular prices. At Steward's opera house, two nights, commencing June 29. Prices 10c, 20c and 30c. Change of program nightly.

Silver Cups Ready.
Cups as prizes to be awarded at the cherry fair in The Dalles June 30 to July 2, inclusive, were received by R. H. Weber, chairman of the executive committee this morning, says a The Dalles paper. To say that they are beauties would be altogether too mild. They are immense. There are eight of them, silver, and cost from $8 to $20 each. The selection includes various shapes. No two alike, and to choose between them would take a connoisseur of the keenest discrimination. They will be given as premiums for the best showing of single box exhibits of Royal Anns, Lamberts, Bings and Black Republicans; and five-box exhibits of the same varieties. Each cup has the inscription, "The Dalles Cherry Fair, July 1, 1908." Besides this the variety of cherry and single or five-box exhibit is inscribed. The cups were selected by the committee consisting of R. H. Weber, A. E. Lake and G. E. Sanders, and were purchased of the G. Heitkemper Co., Portland. They will be placed in one of the show windows on Second street.

Rebekahs Visit Pastime.
Last evening the Rebekah lodge was invited en masse to attend the Pastime theater. The session was adjourned and the invitation accepted. About 20 were guests of the house. They went away highly pleased.
