We have a slumbering idea that beef prices will continue steady and strong for the next five or six years. Some of the cattlemen up in the northwest are spaying their heifers this spring, which to us looks like the very thing not to do. We have fewer cattle per capita than for 20 years. There are no surplus cattle in the east or south and the supply is quite short here on the plains and throughout the corn belt where the feeders were unable last fall to get the money to carry on their usual finishing operations. The high prices of corn and hay last fall caused the farmers in the corn belt to market all their stuff until today the females are commanding almost as much money as the steers and are hard to buy at any price. The day of cheap corn is gone forever and our range fellows are beginning to see the necessity of putting up their own feed stuff. It is the only way out and is simple enough when we consider the cheapness with which we can grow alfalfa, barley, peas and stock beets to say nothing of the thousands of tons of beet pulp turned out by the sugar factories every fall. All these things indicate a mighty evolution in our livestock industry and the man who does not get into the swim will have to be rated as a hind-sider.—Butchers and Stockgrowers' Journal.

The Pastime.

The new set of films at the Pastime tonight are exceptionally clear and the program throughout is a good one. The old familiar story of the prodigal son is well portrayed, and is worth seeing. "The Heart's Bidding" and "Life's Reality" show tragedy and pathos.

"Easter Eggs," "Hey, Look Out There!" and "My Hat" picture the comic side of life.

The songs, "Take Me With You in Your Dreams" and "Southern Girl" are both good. Mr. Ardrey and his band are still holding the audience spellbound.

New Engine Working.

Engine 353 made her first working trip today when she took the rear end of No. 23 up the hill to Kamela. Engineer Charles Payne and Fireman Powell were in charge.

TO-DAY'S SCORE
LA GRANDE 8, PENDLETON 7

You Can't Miss Here.

It is not often that a theatrical company, visiting this city, will as an evidence of good faith, give a public guarantee as to the excellence of the attraction. But Thomas J. Culligan, manager of Culligan's Nashville Students, who play at the Steward opera house, gives the following guaranteed pledge: "We hereby authorize any local manager in every town that we play to guarantee it to be first-class in every particular. The word 'guarantee' is much overworked. Everybody can use it, and almost everybody does. It's a pity to see it misused so often. Guarantee is a good word when it means something. We use it because we have made it mean something. Cut this out and take it to the manager of the first town you are dissatisfied with the entertainment given, your money will be refunded. We personally guarantee the excellence of this attraction."

"THOS. J. CULLIGAN, Mgr."

The Nashville Students will appear at Steward's opera house two nights, commencing June 29. Prices 10c, 20c and 30c.

The Montana man is agent for a colony of 250 German people from the east, and if the land examined can be obtained reasonably, they will come in a body.

No Lake Next Winter.

The railroad company is having the large depression west of the depot filled with cinders from the ash pit at the round house, and if the job is completed, there will be no unsightly lake for tourists to gaze upon in that spot next winter.
