BUD PLAYS INSANE ACT

Walla Walla, June 27.—The Bulletin said last night:

Evidence of the state in the Barnes murder case was introduced today and some testimony will be introduced by the defense. All of the state's witnesses except those in rebuttal have been summoned for today and the defense's witnesses were also told to report this afternoon.

Testimony introduced this morning was along the same line as at the last trial, except that it is given more in sequence and the witnesses as they follow each other to the stand give a more connected story for the jury to follow.

The defense has followed the same tactics in cross-examination that it did before. It is elaborating some of the details regarding Barnes' apparent carelessness the day he came back from the mountains alone, after having taken Mrs. Aldrich up the road, and also on Barnes' many statements regarding his money. This is part of the foundation for the plea of insanity.

Public Takes Interest.

The public took considerable interest in the case today and the court room was filled. The record crowd of both trials, however, was last night, when the court room was simply packed.

Seventeen witnesses were examined this morning for the state.

Attorney Oscar Cain, who will undoubtedly take the lead when the defense's witnesses get on the stand, was out of the city this morning, having been called to Pendleton on some legal business.

Bud Acts Insane.

Bud Barnes made a play in court this afternoon to bear out his plea of insanity and while the effort passed almost unnoticed, it will undoubtedly be introduced in evidence when the defense has its turnings. Bud was seated at the table talking with his wife when his sister, Mrs. June Black, ran over to him, shook his hand and said: "Do you know me now?"

Don't Know Sister.

"No," said Bud as he half drew back.

That was all there was to this incident, but in connection with an occurrence which took place the day Mrs. Black got here, it is interesting. It is stated that on that day, Mrs. Black went to the jail to see Bud, she having come up from her home in California to endeavor to save him from the scaffold. It was at Mrs. Black's place that Bud stayed while he was in California prior to being married.

Brushed to Kiss Her.

As soon as Bud saw her he rushed over to her and kissed her—then he evidently happened to think of what he was doing, as he drew back and said, "I don't know you."

He refused to admit knowing whether he had ever seen her before or not.

Bud, it is said, is merely trying to impress the jury that he is not in possession of his senses. He acts much differently during this trial than he did before. He does not talk so much with his wife and does not look at her so much.

Mrs. Black Pleased.

After Bud had refused to recognize his sister, Mrs. Black returned to her seat evidently pleased and did not seem to be attracted as much as some expected she would be.

Better Than Spanking.

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W, Notre Dame, Ind., will send free to any mother her successful instructions. Send no money, but write her today if your children trouble in this way. Don't blame the child, the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.

ADVERTISING FOR FEDERAL BUILDING SITES.
Treasury Department, Office of the Secretary, Washington, D. C., June 5, 1908.

Proposals will be received, to be opened at 2 o'clock p. m., July 16, 1908, for the sale or donation to the United States of a suitable site, centrally and conveniently located, for the federal building to be erected in La Grande, Oregon. A corner lot, of (approximately) 120x135 feet, is required. Each proposal must give the price, the character of foundations obtainable, the proximity to street cars, sewer, gas and water mains, etc., and must be accompanied by a diagram indicating the principal street, the north point, the dimensions and grades of the land, the widths and paving of adjacent streets and alleys, whether the alleys are public or private, and whether or not the city owns land occupied by sidewalks. The vendor must pay all expenses connected with furnishing evidences of title and deeds of conveyance. Improvements on the property must be reserved by the vendor; but pending the commencement of the federal building they may remain on the property for a reasonable ground rent. The grantor must, however, remove all improvements on thirty days' notice so to do. The right to reject any proposal is reserved. Each proposal must be sealed, marked "Proposal for federal building site at La Grande, Oregon," and mailed to the secretary of the treasury, (supervising architect), Washington, D. C. No special form of proposal is required or provided.
GEO. B. CORTELYOU,
Secretary.

Was Wasting Away.

"I had been troubled with kidney disease for the last five years," writes Robert R. Watts of Salem, Mo. "I lost flesh and never felt well and doctored with leading physicians and tried all remedies suggested without relief. Finally I tried Foley's Kidney Cure and less than two bottles completely cured me and I am now sound and well." During the summer kidney irregularities are often caused by excessive drinking or being overheated. Attend to the kidneys at once by using Foley's Kidney Cure. A. T. Hill.
