THOUSANDS AT ELGIN

COVE LOSES MUCH TALKED OF GAME.

Two Games at Elgin Yesterday Are Main Attractions of the Celebration—About 5000 Attend—Union Spent a Quiet Day—Pierce Orator of the Day at Elgin.

Elgin, July 4.—(Special.)—Notwithstanding that there were close to 5000 people in Elgin last Saturday to attend the best Fourth of July celebration in the history of the city, and that there was a varied lot of attractions, the chief interest centered in the ball game between Cove and Elgin for a side bet of $100. The game was pulled off in the morning to allow the Elgin team to play its double-header, closing the baseball attractions of the day with Union during the afternoon. Interest had run high in the Cove-Elgin game, and it is no wonder that thousands saw the game. The side bet was but a trifle compared to the sum total of small amounts which changed hands on the outcome of the contest. Elgin won, 6 to 3.

In the afternoon the Elgin team again covered itself with victory by defeating the Union team, 14 to 12. Hon. Walter M. Pierce was the orator of the day here.

Quiet at Union.
Union, July 4.—(Special.)—Inhabitants of Union Saturday divided itself between La Grande, Elgin, and Baker City. Those coming back from any of these places speak highly of the elaborateness of the celebrations, but those who saw the monster parade at La Grande are profuse in their praise.

Union was practically deserted, but those who did remain here for the day, found some entertainment in a game of baseball between two sets of business men.

BALLOON ASCENSION TONIGHT.

In Spite of Accident Last Evening Hicks Will Try Again Tonight.

Prof. Hicks, who was hurt yesterday by being dashed against the woodshed back of Mrs. McDonald's, when his balloon failed to rise, is up today, and has been busy repairing the big gas bag. It was through no fault of Hicks that the ascension advertised for last evening was a failure. Those holding the balloon let go at the wrong moment, and instead of rapidly rising, it sped swiftly with the wind, and Mr. Hicks struck the shed with force enough to kill most men. Indeed, it was thought for a time that he was badly hurt. He will try again tonight, in order to show the people that he is no fake. He will start to fill the balloon at half past six.

Natural Ice is The Best

THINGS ARTIFICIAL ARE AT BEST BUT A DECEPTIVE IMITATION OF THINGS NATURAL.

Can an impure fountain send forth pure water? Our ice is not dependent upon a brewery or saloon for its supply. It is furnished by the God of Nature, Who sends forth the sparkling streams from the mountain side. It is taken from the river above the duck ponds and sawmills, and is the PUREST ICE on THIS MARKET.
