THE CROP CONDITIONS

On the eve of harvest, so to speak, the real status of the crop conditions in Oregon and Washington proves to be satisfactory. The following from the Walla Walla Union: Seldom, if ever before, at this time of year, has there been such a general optimistic feeling prevailing among the farmers who depend upon their wheat crops for their daily bread, and every day can be heard the remarks of some energetic son of toil who says he is going to harvest the biggest crop this year that he has ever received. From all parts of the county come reports that grain is in the best of condition, standing several inches higher than usual and as luxuriant as one could wish. The heads are just beginning to fill properly, and within 10 or 15 days, farmers say the kernels will be completely developed.

While there has been considerable uneasiness because of the lack of rain during the past two or three weeks, farmers will not admit that any damage has been done, and positively say they will break last year's record of 5,000,000 bushels for Walla Walla county. Spring grain is in good condition, notwithstanding the continued dry spell, and thus far little or no damage has resulted. Fall sown grain never looked better, and excellent yields from all parts of the county are expected.

RAN OVER A BOY.

Serious Accident at Baker Ignored by Automobile Driver.

Saturday night little Samuel M. Murren was run over by an automobile and badly bruised about the body. The accident occurred about 7 o'clock in the evening on Fourth street. The man who drove the machine is alleged to be Dr. Low of Union. The citizens of Baker are very indignant over this accident for it was the most cold-blooded piece of work ever carried on in this city. After the man had deliberately run over the little fellow he did not even stop to see if he was hurt. Several people saw the accident and although the man was not caught, his license number was obtained. The number on the license is said to be 648. From last reports the injured boy was doing nicely under the circumstances. The matter of arresting the alleged criminal was taken up before Judge Alf Currey, who refused to issue a warrant for his arrest on the present proof. The child's parents will take the matter up with the prosecuting attorney and the guilty party will probably be brought to justice.—Baker City Herald.
