ice Childers, but that would leave the important third base uncovered. To pitch Zimmerman was out of the question as he is to be held for tomorrow's game with Baker City when the next league series opens here.
With the above as the status of the team. The Observer is unable to inform its readers who the players are in advance. Fournier, who is a big part of the team himself, is too ill to play, and O'Brien is still on his back. Fuchell's broken finger is still in splints.
The line-up for Weber today was the same as yesterday, except that Coleman occupied the box.
The Team as Played.
Later—When Empire Fuchell called the game, the line-up for La Grande as decided on was the same as yesterday, except that "Kid" Lee is in left field. Nelson made his appearance at the last moment and is throwing with such speed that Hoffmann is having trouble in holding him. At the end of the second inning the score was 2 to 0 in Weber's favor. The scores were made in the first inning. Indications point to a fast game as up to the third inning hits were more singles.

The Observer received a number of "phone calls today, putting us on the back for the suggestion that the ladies once more take hold of the public park proposition. La Grande has more women boosters than any other town in the country, and what they go after they accomplish. Consequently, if they take hold of the park question the result will be a park and that is one of the necessities of the hour.

DISCOURAGING SITUATION
IN RANKS OF "BABES."
Faced to Drop Down to Ranks of Amateurs—Nelson of Perry, is Hired to Throw for La Grande—Captain and Manager in Dire Fight to Find Players With Which to Face Weber—Baker City is Looking Over Tomorrow Afternoon.

Captain Lohell and Manager Lincoln have wrestled with problems today which would set any ordinary baseball promoter "buzz." Faced in every attempt to get a professional outfit here to throw the second game with Weber, Lincoln and Lohell came down to amateur fields after men, and gained assistance from Pitcher Nelson of the Perry team, that he would be here. Late this afternoon Nelson had not presented himself. As the hour for the game approached the two heads got together, but no tangible scheme would present itself. When the crippled and abbreviated bunch of Babes went out to the field, the captain and manager had no idea who would play. One plan advanced was to pitch Wal-
