LOVERS IN JAIL.

Edward Hall and Mary Perkins Arrested Near Prescott.

Walla Walla, July 16.—The Union says:

Edward Hall, aged 30, who claims he will come into possession of a million dollar estate September 1, is lodged in the county jail awaiting a probable charge of kidnaping and possibly a more serious one. Mary Perkins, aged 14 years, is occupying an adjacent cell.

Hall hails from the Milton country, where he has lived for several years in practical obscurity until several weeks ago when he started the story that he was soon to become rich. He recently fell violently in love with the Perkins girl, his case seeming to please both her and her parents. He has been staying with the girl's family in Milton for several weeks and claims he had the consent of her father to marry her when she was 18 years old. At first this satisfied him, but later he decided four years was too long to postpone the wedding and accordingly he got the girl's consent to elope. In some manner the father became aware of the intentions of the pair and immediately prevented their getaway. This so enraged Hall that he threatened to commit suicide by cutting his throat with a razor. He was apprehended in the very act of severing his jugular vein and persuaded to abandon his purpose. He, however, left the home of his would-be father-in-law amid the tears of his sweetheart.

From all that could be learned of the case yesterday it seems that the Perkins girl was on her way to work for a family named Wilder, near Prescott. It is supposed Hall followed and persuaded her from going to her destination. The two registered at a hotel in Prescott where they remained until Monday. Monday morning they started up the railroad track toward Alto entirely destitute of money and carrying a small hand grip.
