BIG LEAGUE IN SIGHT

Several of the members of the La Grande club in the recent Inland Empire league, may make big jumps this year, according to letters received today by Jack O'Brien. "Bill" McCredie if after Zimmerman and Fournier for the Portland club of the Pacific Coast league, and if the men make good will play out the rest of the season. Zip and Johnnie's batting eyes and their clever fielding work will stand them well in hand in the try-out under McCredie's critical eye. Still others of the club who are making ready for a substantial leap are Childers, Houston and Lodell. These three men have been recommended to Manager Dugdale of the Seattle club, in the Northwest league, and Dugdale writes that he will give them try-outs at once, if they will go to him. These five men were all highly recommended by Jack O'Brien and the letters in response are gratifying. The big need which McCredie faces is pitchers, and members of the Inland Empire league may be rounded up to fill temporary wants there. These men are Gregg of Baker City, and Ehmke of Walla Walla. Both men are good fellows on the stellar mound, but what McCredie will do with them remains to be seen. Those who know the five former La Grande club members will await anxiously the outcome of the try-outs. They were competent here, in fact, too fast for the rest of the players in the league.

LEAGUE NEXT YEAR.

Jack O'Brien Will Organize League Next Year Under Heavy Bonds.
La Grande, July 16.—(To the Editor.)—A new league will be organized next season on a system which forestalls any of the clubs from falling out before the end of the announced schedule. By each club being forced to post $1000, the full length season will be assured. I will manage one of the clubs and perhaps own one, and if I am connected with the La Grande club, you can rest assured I will bring home the pennant as was done this year. I am sorry to see the league break up so soon after all the effort I and the supporters in La Grande went to to perfect the Inland Empire league, and to place it under National league protection. I can say now, and always have said, that there never was a cleaner crowd of young men gotten together as a baseball club, than the aggregation which wore La Grande colors this season. The public will agree with me that it was hard, constant drilling that gave La Grande a winning team, but I am glad to have proven to the people that I made good, and that I can assure them the same success next year. I promised a good team and I gave them the best club seen in this section of the country. It proved a success from the opening day.

EVERYBODY PRAISES
OUR BOTTLING
for a dozen reasons, but here are enough to convince you of the real merit of the product of our establishment. First and foremost, purity of ingredients, including water; second, cleanliness and care in the actual preparations and bottling; third, pricing at only a fair profit to ourselves. Some of the goods we make: Ginger Ale, Sarsaparilla, Soda, Mineral Waters, etc.
