No Sheath Gowns in England.

London, July 17.—What is known as the directoire or sheath gown will be confined in England to actresses and women of the "lower classes." No woman in London society will dare wear the clinging gowns which have created such a sensation on the continent. When the directoire mode first made its appearance, several English society leaders received it kindly and for a time the sheath gown was in high favor. Now it is back to the moth balls or the second-hand clothes men for these daring gowns. For Queen Alexandra has spoke, and what she said in regard to the directoire mode was, in American slang, a plenty.

Her majesty has caused it to be known that any woman wearing a pronounced directoire will not be received at court functions. The queen told her ladies in waiting that the new gowns are immodest and caused a caustic warning to be conveyed to a certain titled lady distinguished for her beautiful figure who displayed it at Ascot in a directoire sheath. The ladies in waiting have also been commanded to notify other titled women of her majesty's displeasure, with the revealing directoire costumes.

At a big ball three ladies wearing these emphatic gowns could scarcely make their courtesies to the queen, and at supper they found much difficulty in sitting down. So displeased was the queen at this unpleasant exhibition that she expressed her indignation openly and left the ball before supper was ended.

As a result of her majesty's decision, many "smart" society women with good figures are nursing secret rage. The fat women, and the scrawny ones, are exultant, and declare that the queen did well to put the ban of her displeasure upon such "immodest" and "vulgar" displays of the figure as afforded by the sheath gown.

War on Absinthe.

Geneva, July 17.—Switzerland is now in the midst of an exciting campaign against the absinthe evil, and the sale or manufacture of the worm-wood distillation has already been prohibited in all the cantons of the republic except that of Geneva. The warfare is now centered in this city, with every prospect of success.

Notice.

To My Friends and Patrons:
Having sold my stock of hardware etc., to Messrs. Lilly and Foster, who will continue in the same line of business, and at the same place, Mr. Lilly having been associated with me for the past six years, I take pleasure in recommending the new firm to my many friends and patrons and trust that you will find business with them as pleasant as our business relations have always been. I will be found at the store during the month of July, and will be pleased to have as many of my friends call and settle their accounts as possible during the month. Thanking you for the many favors shown me, I remain,
Very respectfully,
MRS. T. N. MURPHY.

It Can't Be Beat.

The best of all teachers is experience. C. M. Harden, of Silver City, North Carolina, says: "I find Electric Bitters does all that's claimed for it. For stomach, liver and kidney troubles it can't be beat. I have tried it and find it a most excellent medicine." Mr. Harden is right: It's the best of all medicines also for weakness, lame back, and all run down conditions. Best, too, for chills and malaria. Sold under guarantee at the Newlin drug store, 50c.
