TAFT SMOOTH POLITICIAN

Washington, July 13.—To say that Judge Taft's friends in Washington are pleased with the way in which he plays the political game on his own hook it putting it mildly. They are prophesying that before the campaign is over the country will be convinced that it was Taft shrewdness that made the Roosevelt administration such a picturesque success.

A few of his most ardent admirers are pleased to contrast his behavior in the limelight with President Roosevelt. The admiral that had the president been handling the chairmanship rumpus that, with one dash out of the box, he would have settled it once and for all. They are rather proud of the fact that Judge Taft did not do it that way. They believe he will be the stronger for this display of consideration of all sides of the matter before taking the fatal leap. They say it will appeal to the business interests of the country that have made success possible in the past.

It is estimated that the presidential nominee is about to pull off some stunts in the Ohio political situation which will make old politicians sit up and take a squint at Buckeye Bill. There is no denying the fact that the Ohio aggregation, which has been holding the whip hand in that state since last spring, is sore at the failure of Arthur L. Vorys, of their midst, to land the chairmanship. They wanted the big prize for the prestige that it would give to the machine that they have been laboring on ever since Secretary Taft started out to get the Buckeye delegation to the Chicago convention.

The recent repeated visits of Senator Dick of Ohio, to Private Citizen Taft, has led to the belief that the presidential candidate is seeking to pacify all factions in Ohio at one fell swoop. Previous to the offensive and defensive alliance between Senator Foraker and Senator Dick, caused by the White House opposition to some of their plans, Senator Dick's closest allies in his Ohio fights were the present Ohio bosses who have been trying to put the Buckeye senators to sleep. Walter Brown, chairman of the state central committee; Henry S. Williams, chairman of the state executive committee, and State Auditor Walter Gilbert, were as thick with Dick as hops.

For Senator Dick to go to these Ohio leaders who thought they were about to blossom forth into national politicians, and with bared breast, show them how, in the interest of party success, he has set them an example by getting onto the Taft bandwagon, would have a wholesome effect. It would also have a tendency to make them believe that if they were to be President Taft's representatives in Ohio they must not let the other crowd in Ohio get onto the ground floor ahead of them.

Senator Dick made arrangements with Judge Taft to see him at Hot Springs shortly after the sub-committee selected a chairman of the national committee. At that time it is believed an understanding will be reached which will bring these two men closer together.

Wise as Judge Taft may have been in his selection of a campaign manager, his admirers point out that the greatest single factor in Buckeye Bill's campaign will be the part that Charlie Taft, not the Cincinnati variety of Tafts, but he of the later generation, will play in it.

Already young Charlie has been able to demonstrate unconsciously to the world that his father is a good-souled individual, made up of the same instinct that every father loves to hear extolled. Charlie has made up with the newspaper boys and is regarded as a prize winner as a press agent for his dad.

Better Than Spanking.

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W, Notre Dame, Ind., will send free to any mother her successful instructions. Send no money, but write her today if your children trouble in this way. Don't blame the child, the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.

Riddle has a prospect of a fruit packing establishment.
