HOUSE BREAKERS IN THE CITY.

Home of L. Remillard Broken Into Last Night—Evidently Amateurs.

Between the hours of 8 and 10 last night, some one broke into the residence of L. Remillard, at the corner of Fourth street and Main avenue, and ransacked practically the whole house, turning out bureau and dresser drawers, breaking open trunks and evidently overlooking no place where valuables could be hidden; although missing some money belonging to Mr. Sherwood, of the Electric theater. Mrs. Edmunds lost a valuable gold watch, and Jess Harrington, who with his wife is visiting the Remillards, missed his purse, which contained a diamond stud and some money—about $20. The criminals have not yet been apprehended, although the officers believe they will be able to catch them in a short time. The work was evidently done by amateurs.
