MONTANA EAGLES CELEBRATE.

Making Noise Enough for Thousands, Eagles Gather in Garden City of Montana.

Missoula, Mont., July 20.—Several hundred Eagles, making noise enough for several thousand ordinary humans, arrived here today and took entire possession of the Garden City. The local lodge, 500 strong, gave the visitors a hilarious reception and escorted them to their roosts, preparatory to the opening of the state aerie convention tomorrow. The three days following will be crowded with sports and entertainments of every known variety, for which the Missoula aerie has raised a fund of over $5000.

PENDELTON PASTIME BURNED.

Pendleton, July 20.—Shortly after 2 o'clock this afternoon at the Pastime picture show, owned by Melvin E. Sellers, a spark from the picture machine ignited one of the films, which are made of celluloid, and almost instantly the operator's room was a mass of flames. Trite, the operator, jerked the wire that lowered the trap doors of the room, and leaped out of danger just in time to save himself serious injury. The damage is estimated at $400 or $500.

PENDELTON NEEDS WATER.

Physicians Declare Water Supply of Umatilla Metropolis to Be Impure. Pendleton, July 20.—"Pendleton water is unsafe to use without boiling." So say the physicians of this city, and they strongly recommend that every housewife boil all the water used for domestic purposes. The water has been muddy for some days and the people on the hills have been almost without water. It is generally conceded that there is no remedy available except to put in an entirely new system.

Death of Pendleton Man.

Pendleton, July 20.—Orville Turner, a highly respected young man of this city, and for a number of years in the employ of the O. R. & N. company, died Saturday morning at Wena-ha Springs. He was afflicted with Bright's disease and after leaving the employ of the railroad company and failing to regain his health, he went to the springs and took charge of the swimming pool and baths. The change seemed to be beneficial and Mr. Turner was in good spirits, being hopeful of ultimate recovery. He was fishing all day Friday and returned feeling very well, but was attacked during the night with the disease, and died early Saturday morning.

Better Than Spanking.

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W, Notre Dame, Ind., will send free to any mother her successful instructions. Send no money, but write her today if your children trouble in this way. Don't blame the child, the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.
