Tenth and Morrison, Portland, Oregon A. P. Armstrong, LL.B., Principal
We occupy two floors 65 by 100 feet, have a $20,000 equipment, employ a large faculty, give individual instruction, receive more calls for office help than we can meet. Our school admittedly leads all others in quality of instruction. It pays to attend such an institution.
Said a Business Man: "Keep hammering away everlastingly on thorough work. It will win out in the end." Said an Educator: "The quality of instruction given in your school makes it the standard of its kind in the Northwest."
Open all the year. Students admitted at any time. Catalogue free. References: Any bank, any newspaper, any business man in Portland.

ESPERANTA KUNVENO.

First National Convention Held in Chautauqua—Enthusiastic Gathering.

Chautauqua, N. Y., July 29.—Karaj, samideano! Vivu, Esperanto! Vivu, Zamenhoff! Vivu, la Nacia Esperanta Kunveno!

Freely translated, this means that the disciples of Dr. Zamenhoff's new universal language, Esperanto, which is alleged to embrace all the virtues of all other languages and the faults of none, are gathered in Chautauqua today for their first national convention, and that they are glad to see each other. Karaj, samideano—the same meaning, Shake, brother of the same idea!

HIBERNIANS GATHER.

Indiana Capital Scene of Merrymaking—Everybody Wishes He Were Irish.

Indianapolis, Ind., July 20.—Indianapolis has today taken on the appearance of Dublin on a St. Patrick's day in the mornin'. The hotel registers read like a police force roll call. Green flags, green ribbons, green hats, green shamrocks, green shamrocks are seen everywhere. Everybody is talking with a brogue and the very air is redolent of the "ould sod." All of this because Indianapolis is today entertaining the delegates to the biennial national convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, the greatest body of Irish and Catholics in the world.

Good Price for Wheat.

A local wheat buyer stated yesterday that the market would not be far from 70 cents clear to start with, says the Walla Walla Union. This means almost 75c f. o. b. This is of course, offered for first-class grain, but coming at this time from a grain buyer, it is good evidence of activity when the crop comes onto the market. Flour was reported firm yesterday with no immediate prospects for a change. Dealers say that on account of the good outlook in the grain market, flour will be advanced if changed at all.
