ALL SAME ECHO.

A few years ago one might read of the scourge of rabbits in the western states—an increasing horde of bunnies that ravaged the country, ate all the green things, and made life miserable for the settler. The department of agriculture not so many years ago issued a bulletin, with some scientific hints as to rabbit extermination, and told graphically of the rabbit hunts or round-ups, wherein the citizens of perhaps several countries got together built a big trap, and then chased Br'er Rabbit in a fast-enclosing circle, until he ran into the corral, where he was slaughtered by the thousand with clubs. Br'er Rabbit was a destroyer and a liability—not an asset.

But in these progressive days, Tasmania, one of the British colonies, has found a way to make Bunny a good cash asset. He is trapped, split open, frozen, and shipped all the way to England, where his fur is not unacceptible. In 1906, $2,391,563 in frozen rabbits were exported to England, together with $2,323,510 in rabbit skins.

GIVE THE OLD BOYS A CHANCE.

The old politicians in Washington, with the glory of many campaign fights upon them, are more than vexed at the call being given young men in the choice of leaders for the approaching presidential contest. It's awful, they think.

The probability of the selection of Ollie James, the big Kentucky congressman to manage the campaign for William Jennings Bryan has added to their irritation over the selection of Frank H. Hitchcock, as chairman of the republican national committee. Old men do not have a chance these days, they say.

They point out that James is but little more than a kid. The truth is that he would be the youngest campaign manager ever selected by a big political party.

Rate Makers Meet.

Denver, Col., July 21.—One of the most important meetings ever held by the Western Classification committee will be commenced today at Manitou, Col. This organization is composed of the traffic managers of the railroad lines west of Chicago, and dictates the rates that shall apply on all commodities shipped west of the Mississippi river. Four hundred and ninety-three articles are listed on the docket for readjustment. One of the most important is the question as to whether the roads shall raise the minimums on some 1250 commodities. If such action should be taken the result would mean practically a raising of the rates. In addition to the railroads most of the transportation bureaus of the country are represented at the conference.

Undoubtedly.

A few days ago one of the former "old guard" attached to several of the saloons stepped into one of the places now run on the soft drink plan, and drank a couple of schooners of near beer. Telling of his experience afterward, he said: "I had a couple of bottle of beer laid away, and some whiskey. I got a piece of ice and cooled the stuff and drank it. Then I noticed that some of the ice was left so I laid a bottle of booze on it. I drank at least twice, the first time and the last, and came down here and swallowed a couple of these things (referring to the near beer) and darned if I didn't get full right away."

Better Than Spanking.

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W, Notre Dame, Ind., will send free to any mother her successful instructions. Send no money, but write her today if your children trouble in this way. Don't blame the child, the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.

Trim Your Trees.

Property owners having trees, the branches of which extend over the sidewalk and streets, are hereby ordered to trim them so they will not obstruct the walks. The limbs should be trimmed to a height of not less than seven feet from the sidewalk.
