BALL GAME FOR BAND

Since the founding of the league, a great deal of interest has been manifested by the young men of the city and all who are young in amateur ball. In times past, La Grande has had some excellent amateur teams and it will give pleasure to many to learn that one of these aggregations will appear on the local diamond one week from the coming Sunday. The fellows who will constitute the team are under the management of Al Heister, as formerly. Can you beat 'em? They are: Sigrist, catcher; Jay Van Buren, first base; John Brookler, second base; Fray, third base; Colner, shortstop; Andrew Albright, right field; "Bob" Williams, center; and Will Stoddard, left. The pitcher has not yet been selected, but Al has a number under consideration, and he will get the best one available at the time. The opposing team at that time will be the La Grande Amateurs, who are to win from Cove here Sunday. For this game the coming Sunday, Williams and Sigrist, and perhaps others of the Heister team, will play with the Amateurs and the Cove boys, although a speedy bunch, will have their work cut out for them.

Save! The game between the Amateurs and Heister's team will be played for the benefit of the band.

Band Concerts.

The band boys have planned to give a concert on the street at least once a week, and in order to meet the expense of keeping an instructor and leader, they are accepting subscriptions from the general public and the business men. The band was started during this morning when Attorney C. E. Finn walked up and proffered a $5 check as his contribution. The members of the band are public-spirited gentlemen, and they are giving their time absolutely free, whenever they give a street concert. They ask no pay, but feel that they ought not to be expected to meet the expenses out of their own pockets. These open air concerts are a benefit to the city in general, and to every business that is open during the evening, in particular. People, large numbers of them, come down town on the occasion of these concerts, that would otherwise stay at home. Dig up, gentlemen. If the 25 members of the band will give two or three evenings a week for your pleasure and advantage, you can afford to give two bits a week toward their expense fund.

It Can't Be Beat.

The best of all medicines is experience. C. M. Hadden, of Silver City, North Carolina, says: "I find Electric Bitters does all that's claimed for it. For stomach, liver and kidney troubles it can't be beat. I have tried it and find it a most excellent medicine." Mr. Hadden is right!
