BOARD ACTS ON BOOKLET

DELEGATES WILL ATTEND GOOD ROADS CONVENTION.

Commercial Club Board of Managers Meets Last Night to Revise Booklets—Remarkably Cheap Price for First-Class Literature.

At the board meeting of the Commercial club held last evening, after a thorough discussion and examination of prospectus for the new literature which had been received, a committee consisting of William Miller, Turner Oliver and Fred Taylor was appointed to carefully go over the same and revise if necessary.

The president was also empowered to appoint delegates to the Good Roads convention, which meets in Portland on August 11. Several delegates will be sent with the required credentials.

MONEY FOR NEXT YEAR

FOURTH OF JULY COMMITTEE AUDITS BILLS.

One Hundred and Twenty-Five Dollars Left Over After Fourth of July Committee Has Paid All Bills—To Publish Full List of Expenditures in Near Future.

Money left over for a nest egg for next year's Fourth of July celebration was the happy finding of the finance committee of the board of managers of the celebration committee.

After several hours of careful auditing of all the bills presented which included all but a very few outstanding, the balance was struck last night, which will result in a starter for next year of about $125.

The bunting, or a good portion of it, and the pennants have all been carefully packed away for future use.

A complete financial statement will soon be made by the treasurer, and published. The subscription list shows a total of $829, which included a balance left over from the last celebration of $101. Of course, La Grande will celebrate next year, and every effort will be made to outdo the 1908 record. Quite an undertaking, but it is worthy of an attempt.

Cooked Food Sale.

The ladies of the W. R. C. will conduct a cooked food sale at the Grande Ronde Meat company's central shop, commencing at 3 o'clock next Saturday. All members are requested to bring their baskets of food. By order of committee.

J. W. Kennedy and wife arrived from Portland this morning. They left the metropolis last Wednesday, and visited Walla Walla and Echo on the way.

Trim Your Trees.

Property owners having trees, the branches of which extend over the sidewalk or street, are hereby ordered to trim them so they will not obstruct the sidewalks. Limbs should be trimmed off to a height of not less than seven feet from the sidewalk.

J. A. MATOTT, Street Superintendent.

Notice to Water Consumers.

Patrons not on meters wishing to use city water for irrigation purposes will please call at the recorder's office and have proper application and the meter installed. Meters will turn the water on from 6:30 to 11:30 p. m.

Better Than Spanking. Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W, Notre Dame, Ind., will send free to any mother her successful instructions. Send no money, but write her today if your children trouble in the way. Don't blame the child, the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.
