COMFORT FOR TOURISTS

Convenience is to be the keynote governing the Conductors' excursion August 9. On each train will be ample baggage facilities and competent men will be in charge to see that fishing tackle and lunch baskets are not molested. To insure comfort for the passengers, none of these things will be allowed in the coaches. It will be perfectly safe, however, to leave them in the places provided for this purpose.

The first section will be a through train and will make but one or two stops on its way to the Looking Glass. The last section will be a local and will pick up passengers at points en route. The conductors are making extensive preparations to make this affair a huge success, and to all appearances their efforts will be rewarded.

COMMERCIAL CLUB STANDS BY THE BAND

Commercial Club Headquarters, La Grande, July 29, 1908. To the Good Citizens of La Grande: We are all proud of our home band and thankful for the many hours of pleasure the organization has given us; therefore, it is only right that the residents of this city should turn out and patronize the benefit carnival the boys are giving this week on Depot street. The boys need uniforms and money to keep up the expense of an instructor, also rent for a band room. Every citizen will agree that a city without a band is like a pump without a handle. The band is a necessity. Patronize the carnival. Yours respectfully, JOHN COLLIER, President Commercial Club.
