LADD CANYON ITEMS

Ladd Canyon, July 20.—(Special.) —A bouncing baby boy was born Monday, July 27, to Mr. and Mrs.
Frank Counsell. The proud "Dad" is at the present baling hay for Leander Ferguson and he even makes the bales smile as he does.

Mrs. A. Little of South La Grande, was a visitor last week with her daughter, Mrs. James McClure and family.
Mr. and Mrs. James Mulholland spent Saturday and Sunday up in the mountains among the huckleberries and fresh air.

Mrs. Mabel Derringer and children, of La Grande, are at present visiting Mrs. Marie Larm.

Joseph Linebarger has gone to Walla Walla on a visit to relatives.
Mrs. Linebarger is to meet, while there, a sister whom she has not seen for a period of at least 25 years. She will be accompanied home by her mother and two sisters.

Mrs. William Hansen has returned home from Freeewater, where she was called on account of the death of her sister's husband, J. Peterson.
The Ladd Canyon team, like a great many other teams, has laid its baseball outfit away until next year.

"BOSS" WELL PLEASED.

Superintendent Campbell Visited the Looking Glass Park Yesterday.
Superintendent Campbell in his special car, went over the new road beyond Elgin yesterday, which, by the way, is the first passenger coach to go over this section. He viewed the place which the railroad boys selected for holding their picnic at Looking Glass park, and congratulated the boys on their selection.

PENDLETON GETS NO CIRCUSES.

Advertising Car Left Baker Today Headed for Walla Walla Direct.

While the Barnum & Bailey circus will show at La Grande, advertising car No. 2 left Baker this morning on No. 1, headed direct for Walla Walla.
The circus will not stop at Pendleton.
No big shows stop there anymore, and in connection with this fact there is a story of municipal greed which was enacted in that city a few years ago, when Ringling Bros. took their aggregation to the county seat of Umatilla to give a performance.

It seems that arrangements were not perfected by the advance agents for license and when the show reached Pendleton ready to stretch its tents, the city administration informed the manager that no license had been procured, further stating that it would cost Ringlings $1000 in cold cash if they showed in Pendleton that day.
The show people did not want to make a break in their record of never failing to put on a performance when billed to do so and they paid the price.
But after paying into the city $1000 Ringling's manager told the city fathers of Pendleton that his shows would never stop there again. Also that as long as Ringlings were in the circus business no big circus would stop there. Ringlings are still in the business, in fact they own the only two big circuses in the world, and they are keeping their word with Pendleton. The name of that city remains on the circus black list and it will probably require another generation to place the city in good standing with circus people.—Baker City Herald.

riders in the world, Orin Davenport,

In case of stomach and liver trou-
