MAURICE IN GRIEF AGAIN

Poor Maurice Fitzmaurice. He is in trouble again. La Grande will remember him as an itinerant preacher who for a time occupied the pulpit in the Methodist church, South, in this city. At that time he posed as a preacher, barrister, traveler, pen pusher, writer, poet, lecturer of some note and a graduate of Dublin college, Ireland. He left La Grande without any particular cloud of suspicion, but since he has been in other parts of the northwest, suspicion has followed him everywhere. He is now at Starbuck, and the following letter from the postmaster at that place, divulges the fact that the citizens of that community are not particularly attached to the man:

Editor Currey, La Grande, Ore.

Dear Sir: I have been informed that you know something about the transactions of one M. A. Fitzmaurice. We have him with us now, and I am attempting to expose him as a grafter that I know him to be, and then stop his living off of honest men. He is trying to practice law here, and also edit a paper here and at Pomeroy. If you feel that you or your people over there can give me any information that will assist me, I would be very much pleased to have it.

FORTUNE TELLERS LEAVE.

The Gypsy Fortune Tellers Who Were Here Leave for Boise.

The gypsy fortune tellers who have made their abode in La Grande for about two weeks, took their departure today for Boise. While in La Grande they report having had a lucrative business.

The manager of the palmist is endowed with a greater amount of honesty than the ordinary man of his nationality. Last night he spent several hours searching for the editors of The Observer that he might pay a small bill which he was indebted to The Observer. Unable to do so, he left the money with Mr. Bohnenkamp at a late hour last night.

Cured Hay Fever and Summer Cold.
A. J. Nusbaum, Batesville, Ind., writes: "Last year I suffered for three months with a summer cold so distressing that it interfered with my business. I had many of the symptoms of hay fever, and a doctor's prescription did not reach my case, and I took several medicines which seemed to only aggravate my case. Fortunately I insisted upon having Foley's Honey and Tar and it quickly cured me. My wife has since used Foley's Honey and Tar with the same success." A. T. Hill, druggist.

Better Than Spanking.

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W, Notre Dame, Ind., will send free to any mother her successful instructions. Send no money, but write her today if your children trouble in this way. Don't blame the child, the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.
