Harvesters and loafers are both happy—some of them.
peep. That's curiosity. If the continue to stare, it's admiration.

BRYAN ACCEPTS NOMINATION

party, having a prospect of success, which stands for justice in government and for equity in the division of the fruits of industry.

Our Party's Ideal.
The platform of our party closes with a brief statement of the party's ideal. It favors "such an administration of the government as will insure, as far as human wisdom can, that each citizen shall draw from society a reward commensurate with his contribution to the welfare of society."

Governments are good in proportion as they assure to each member of society, so far as governments can, a return commensurate with the individual merit.

The Divine Law of Rewards.
There is a Divine law of rewards; when the Creator gave us the earth, with its fruitful soil, the sunshine with its warmth and the rains with their moisture, He proclaimed, as clearly as if His voice had thundered from the clouds: "Go, work, and according to your industry and your intelligence so shall be your reward." Only where might has overthrown, cunning undermined or government suspended this law, has a different law prevailed. To conform the government to this law ought to be the ambition of the statesman, and no party can have a higher mission than to make it a reality wherever governments can legitimately operate.

Justice to All.
Recognizing that I am indebted for my nomination to the rank and file of our party, and that my election must come, if it comes at all, from the unpurchased and unpurchasable suffrages of the American people, I promise if entrusted with the responsibilities of this high office, to consecrate whatever ability I have to the one purpose of making this, in fact, a government in which the people rule—a government which will do justice to all, and offer to every one the highest possible stimulus to great and persistent effort by assuring to each the enjoyment of his just share of the proceeds of his toil, no matter in what part of the vineyard he labors, or to what occupation, profession or calling he devotes himself.

EAGLES HAVE TROUBLE.

Big Squabble Over Organization of State Aeries Will Be Heated.

Seattle, Aug. 12.—There promises to be a warm session of the Eagles convention meeting here, before the much mooted question of organizing state aeries is settled. This morning, after the reports of the grand worthy president, Theodore A. Bell, and the grand trustees, had received a special committee appointed to report on the state organization, asked for more time. For an hour the delegates discussed the question. The question comes up again tomorrow. This afternoon the delegates and their ladies were guests at the Meadow race track.

HONORS TO KING.

King Edward Royally Received in Austria by King and Natives.

Ischl, Austria, Aug. 12.—King Edward entered the city today through lines of beautiful women strewing flowers in his path. Emperor Franz Joseph greeted the king at the railroad station.

It is known that the king and emperor discussed the conditions in Turkey. No public statement was made concerning the conference. The royal visitor was a guest of the emperor at luncheon at the imperial villa. He then took a long drive. Tonight a chorus composed of 6000 men will serenade the king while he is dining.

ARLO MEYERS HURT

A meager report from the Sandridge states that Arlo Meyers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Meyers of this city, was seriously injured late this afternoon. A horse kicked the boy in the head, inflicting severe injuries. He will be brought to La Grande this evening if his condition is such that the trip can be endured.

When conversation lags tell a risqué story. Proper people enjoy nothing more than being slightly shocked.
